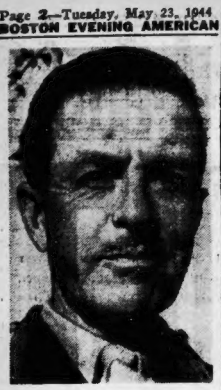
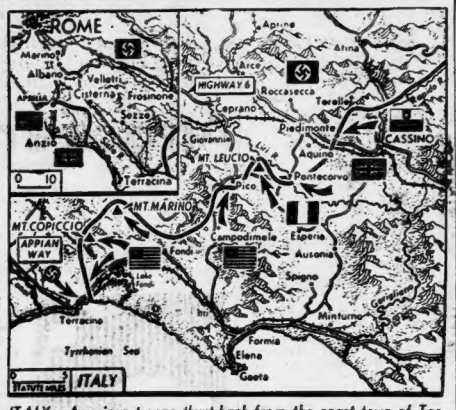
Nazis Give Up Pico 'In Worst Beating'



GEN. SIR HAROLD ALEXANDER
Allied Commander in Italy
Associated Press Photo



ITALY—American troops thrust back from the coast town of Terracina have struck northeast . . . to take mountain heights within 22 miles of the Anzio beachhead, while in the center of the line Germans admit they have evacuated Pico. Nazis report an Allied attack on the beachhead striking from Aprilia.

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 23 (AP) — Allied troops, fighting against German reinforcements hastily flung into battle, have struck deeper into the Germans' mountain barrier only 22 miles from the Anzio beachhead, seizing more mountain heights northeast of Terracina, it was announced today.

The German high command announced evacuation of Pico, central bastion of the Hitler Line 60 miles southeast of Rome, and asserted that the Allies in the Anzio beachhead had struck mightily with tanks, planes and infantry behind the main battlefront.

("The Germans are receiving one of the greatest thrashings in their history from the forces under Gen. Sir Harold Alexander," the British minister of information, Brendan Bracken, said in London. He declared the fighting in Italy "is beyond all description.")

The German high command also declared — without confirmation here—that the Fifth Army had launched a strong infantry and tank assault, supported by planes, at the center of that front, and "fighting is in full swing."

NAZI HURL RESERVES

Berlin broadcasts said the beachhead Fifth Army attacked after intensive artillery fire, hitting southwest and west of Aprilia, and in theCisterna-Littoria sector.

Headquarters declared the Germans have thrown their full reserve strength south of Rome into the Hitler Line battle, and the Allied main and beachhead armies are engaging 17 Nazi divisions, some of them badly mauled.

Besides the Fifth Army advances northeast of Terracina, the Eighth Army penetrated the Nazi defenses farther northeast in the Liri valley.

In the town of Piedimonte, four miles west of Cassino, the enemy still was clinging to strong points while Eighth Army troops, including Poles, were on three sides of this strong natural position. Street fighting was raging in some parts of the town.

(Last night the Morocco radio said Eighth Army forces had captured Piedimonte.)

LEAVE TERRACINA

While American patrols which entered Terracina yesterday later withdrew, other American units advanced on Monte Croce, an important hill overlooking the town.

Americans also have occupied or are in the process of occupying various other high points in the mountain mass running inland from Terracina. These include Monte Capiccio, Monte Autone, Monte Calvo and Monte Marino.

Other units were ascending the southern slopes of Monte Dellafate, 3000-foot feature towering above the other hills, and had taken Colle Cima Delmonte, 2500 feet high, which commands the Fondi-Vallecorsa road.

The town of Monsicardi, two miles north of Fondi, also was occupied.

100 CAPTURED

One hundred Germans were captured in the five-mile Monte Orso railroad tunnel north of Terracina.

Farther inland, in the vicinity of Lenola, American infantry advanced over difficult country despite stiff German resistance.

Still further inland, in the San Leucio-Pico area, the Germans counterattacked with a large number of tanks, forcing slight withdrawals of the flanks of the American and French forces there. But the summit of Monte San Leuico remains in Allied hands.

Invasion Weather

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—A light northwesterly wind over Dover Strait failed to ruffle the calm sea today as the sun broke through the haze, providing fair visibility.

A moderate rise in temperature brought the thermometer to 60 degrees before 9 a. m. (3 AEW). The barometer, which rose yesterday, remained steady through the night.

Troops Tie R. R.

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—New invasion tenseness gripped troop-packed Britain today as further drastic cuts in main line passenger train schedules left thousands of civilians stranded in stations.

Train timetables throughout the country were put on a virtual day-to-day basis. Troops were given priority on trains still running.

At some stations 50 trains were canceled without warning—some on busy suburban routes. "We are in the hands of the authorities," was the only explanation officials at one London station would give.

The appearance of German air scouts over Britain early today, apparently seeking to spot military preparations, added to the sense of invasion imminency. Six of the enemy planes were brought down.

Throughout the country British hatred of the Nazis was fed by a Stockholm dispatch in the Daily Express asserting that the shooting of 47 British and Allied prisoners of war, all RAF officers, in the German prison camp Stalag Luft III in March was "mass murder."

Nazi radio warnings and reassurances about the impending invasion included an estimate that 3,500,000 troops are poised in the south of England for a thrust against the Continent, the biggest Nazi estimate thus far.

Soviet Reports Patrol Clashes

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—Small-scale German reconnaissance attacks in the area of Tiraspol in the lower Dnestr river valley were reported today by Moscow as a lull continued along the rest of the long eastern front—a lull which military commentators on both sides again predicted would end soon.

The Nazi attacks yesterday along the Dnestr battle line were repulsed and 300 Germans were killed in the sporadic fighting.

New Raid Peak Hit on 5th Day

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—An aerial armada of up to 750 U. S. Flying Fortresses and Liberators, escorted by more than 1000 fighters, smashed at airfields and rail yards in France and undisclosed objectives in western Germany today.

This daylight blow—continuing into the fifth straight day the renewed Allied aerial offensive cracking Hitler's western defenses — came after more than 1000 British night bombers rained an estimated 3360 short tons of explosives on Dortmund and Brunswick, Germany, and four other continental objectives.

Thirty-five RAF planes were missing from last night's operations, and at least two enemy fighters were destroyed, the air ministry said.

The first crack of dawn brought out the day attackers. While American heavy bombers were unloading deadly cargoes on a wide assortment of installations figuring importantly in the Germans' planes to combat the impending invasion, many of the Mustangs Lightnings and Thunderbolts in the unusually strong fighter escort probably swooped low to shoot up other objectives.

Still other fighters—RAF Mustangs—carried out supporting sweeps over miles of enemy-held territory to strafe targets in a continuation of the new phase of the western air war carried out by low-flying American and British fighter planes.

Counted together, the night and day assaults saw approximately 3000 Allied planes roar from British bases and hurl an estimated 5000 short tons of bombs on continental targets.

These latest attacks brought to around 22,000 tons the weight of explosives dumped by Allied aircraft from Britain and Italy in five days.

The German radio reported furious battles between the German air force and American raiders over France today but made no mention of sky fights over Germany. The RAF's massive night bombing fleet ran into stiff opposition from the Nazis over both Dortmund and Brunswick.

While the main force of the gigantic night armada concentrated on Nazi industrial and communications cities, other formations hit rail junctions at Orleans and Le Mans in France in a continuation of a systematic campaign to paralyze Hitler's western transport system before Allied ground forces invade the Continent. Mosquitos attacked Ludwigshafen and an airfield in Belgium and mines were laid in enemy waters.

Portsmouth was identified by the Germans as the principal target of their night stabs at Britain.

Philippines Now In Plane Range

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 23 (AP)—American activation of Wakde's airfield brought all New Guinea within range of fighter-escorted Allied bombers today and presaged deeper aerial inroads on the Dutch East Indies—even air penetration of the Philippines.

But while Gen. MacArthur's planes took off and landed on the strategic island strip, jungle-wise Japanese blocked the advance of Sixth Army Yanks against two other important airfields on the nearby Dutch New Guinea mainland.

Accurate enemy mortar fire kept the Americans pinned against the Tor river in the Toem area which they invaded Wednesday, the day before they stormed Wakde. Heavy artillery was brought up behind the American beachhead to blast enemy positions.

The Wakde strip, 110 miles northwest of Hollandia, was made ready for Allied planes 48 hours after the invaders hit the beach.

Objectives of the Toem-based drive are Sarmi and Maffin Bay airfields which have runways comparable to Wakde's excellent 4700-foot coral strip.

Chinese Cut Old Jap Burma Road

CHUNGKING, May 23 (AP)—The Chinese high command announced today that Chinese forces striking for the Burma border from the Salween river have cut the old Burma road at Chefang, 28 miles from the Burma frontier.

The Chinese victory isolated the main enemy Burma road base at Lungling, 25 miles northeast by cutting its supply route from Mandalay. The communique said the Jap garrisoo at Chefang was encircled and wiped out by advancing Chinese.

These forces driving westward across Yunan Province, West China, now stand less than 100 airline miles from American and Chinese forces in North Burma engaging the Japs in hand-to-hand combat for Mitkyina.

Cash Safe in Pacific, but Sox!

ADVANCED SOUTH PACIFIC BASE (AP)—Military paymasters pack a quarter of a million dollars through the Solomon Island jungles with never a worry.

"Nobody steals money out here," explains Second Lieut. A. F. Rinehart of Yakima, Wash. "But, boy, you gotta watch your laundry."

He recently made a swing up the Solomons, as assistant Marine Corps paymaster, with two duffel-bags. One contained $365,000 in cash. The other was loaded with cigarettes, cigars and candy.

"Before I finished my swing round the island camps," he said, "practically every box and carton of cigars, cigarettes and candy had been pilfered. I didn't lose a dime from the other bag."

Rinehart and other aides of Paymaster Col. George F. Adams of San Diego, Cal., have lugged half a million dollars from Guadalcanal to Bougainville with no more protection than a .45 automatic and a padlock.

Warrant Officer Harry Daniels of Minot, N. D., has slept in a foxhole with $250,000 as a pillow. He says the average marines gets about $80 a payday and sends all but about $20 home.

"The men scream for pay day," Rinehart said. "And when they get paid they ask, 'Now what the hell as I gonna do with it?'

"The crap and poker games start at night, usually after the boys have converted the desired amounts into money orders and sent them home. Many a man who draws less than $100 a month has pocketed five grand after one night."

Jolly 'Psychic' Dispenses Lies

By HELEN FARLOW

A husband whirling toward divorce in flirtatious dalliance with a blonde English belle who "crazy for him . . . and she'll probably get her way" was sketched in agonizing phrases by a mountainous Lawrence fortune teller with combined home and office in a square brick tenement between a saloon and the city's Venereal Disease Clinic.

Her pocket-sized apartment, where she receives clients with wheezing jollity, is unexpectedly bright and neat, adorned with flowered oil cloth and colorful, gay pictures snipped from magazines.

An ample, Kate Smith-contoured woman of 60, the prophetess has snow-white silken curls topping a pleasant small face sunk in a pillow of pink-and-white flesh, and her dumpling hands are diamond-decked and mahogany-taloned. In her younger days she might have been a stunner of the showgirl type.

A woman with no meanness in her anywhere, you would think, if you rapped on her dingy door and received her greeting. A woman you might instinctively call "Auntie So-and-So" after a few hours' acquaintance. A woman who would give you her right arm.

PREYS ON DEFENSELESS

Yet, like other fortune tellers who deck themselves with spangled titles as "clairvoyants," "psychic readers," and "occult mediums," this woman preys on the most defenseless of her sex—women made vulnerable by soul-searing fears for the lives and affections of loved ones serving beneath their country's flag.

She was one of dozens of fortune tellers patronized by Pauline Warren, Alice Bissell, Helen Weller and myself during a five-weeks' research into the sordid tangles of the occult web. The investigation was aimed at stripping open any fortune telling racket which might be mushrooming in this area and exposing it to the light of public knowledge and opinion.

Kindly as she seemed, the Lawrence seer was as treacherous as the others in dealing despair with the flip of her cards, and

Attacker of Five Women Caught

A 20-year-old North Cambridge dishwasher confessed himself today as the silent terrorist who has attempted night-time criminal attacks on five women pedestrians in the past two months, Cambridge police announced.

ROBBED IN VICHY—Masked bandits robbed Danielle Darrieux, French film star, and her husband, Charge d'Affaires Porfirio Rubirosa, in their Haute Savoie Province villa, the German DNB news agency disclosed today.

They identified him as a Creighton st. youth who has been prowling after women in the Porter sq. section. Two of the attacks occurred last week, one woman having been handled so roughly she required medical attention.

For the time being, the dishwasher was booked as a suspicious person. The women who fought off his onslaughts were to view him later for identification.

Each of the attacks was made in silence. The assailant concealed himself in dark spots or followed noiselessly until he could spring upon his victims in secluded places.

The youth was arrested by Patrolman John Flynn, who saw him follow a woman after she alighted from a street car at Day and Dover sts.

At roll call this morning, Patrolman John Trant picked out the prisoner as an old acquaintance. The youth broke down and admitted he had been the terrorist, police said.

Somerville authorities were also to question him in connection with fires of mysterious origin there lately.

21 Nude Bathers Scolded, Freed

Lecturing them sternly and asserting the practice of swimming in Broad canal, Cambridge, must cease, Judge Edward A. Counihan dismissed delinquency complaints against 21 Charlestown boys in East Cambridge court today to end the week-long controversy resulting from their nude bathing in the canal.

Complaints were dismissed at the request of Police Chief Timothy F. Leahy, who said he had no desire to prosecute the boys, ranging in age from 12 to 16 years, and that they had been punished enough.

"Nevertheless, the practice of swimming in Broad canal must cease," the judge said sternly, eyeing the defendants, dressed in Sunday best and listening attentively in a line before him.

CAUSED NO DAMAGE

"There is no proof that you boys were guilty of damage to property and the embarrassing of women which has been caused by this nude swimming. But the public must be protected and the practice of swimming there must cease.

"It is the responsibility of you parents here to see that your boys do not become involved in further trouble. They are leaving this court without a record, and that is fair because they have been punished enough."

The judge also noted that the canal, into which waste from several industrial plants emptied, was unclean and that swimming there was jeopardizing the health of the boys.

LICKINGS FOR TWO

Two of the boys fared less well with their parents than they did in court. Both were administered an old-fashioned spanking. John Barnett, 14, was whacked on the steps of the courthouse by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Barnett.

Joseph Greene, 12, felt his mother's heavy hand where it did the most good at their home in Lawrence st., Charlestown.

The court action today come after Chief Leahy failed to carry out his announced intention of appearing before the Cambridge city council to demand apologies from two councilors who had criticized the police.

Firemen Rescue Girl as 8 Flee

A 14-year-old girl was carried to safety over ladders and eight other persons escaped through smoke-filled hallways today when flames swept a three-story dwelling in Fellsway ter., Medford.

Trapped in her second floor bedroom, Pauline Babbitt escaped after Firemen Albert Prior and James Moore mounted ladders and brought her to the street. The child's mother, Mrs. Arthur Babbitt, succeeded in reaching a rear stairway.

RAF Flier Dad Of Quadruplets

LONDON, May 23 (AP)—Mrs. Daisy Moxham of Southend, wife of an RAF flying officer, has given birth to quadruplets—three boys and a girl—it was announced today. Mother and children were reported well.

The babies, born last night, and their weights are:

Brian, 3 pounds, 10¼ ounces; George, 1 pound, 13¼ ounces; Daisy, 2 pounds, 14 ounces, and William, 3 pounds, 6 ounces.

Quadruplets were born last Feb. 28 to Norah Rose Carpenter of Heanor, Derbyshire, and Staff Sergt. William Thompson, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa. One of the children died three days later.

This afternoon the condition of the 38-year-old Mrs. Moxham was described as "not so satisfactory." She is the mother of five other children, ranging in ages from 5 to 16 years. Her husband is 39.

Doc Sagansky Refuses To Testify at Bet Trial

Dr. Harry J. "Doc Jasper" Sagansky was brought into Suffolk Superior Court from Norfolk prison colony today on a writ of habeas corpus, but as far as concerns aiding the state's case against 18 defendants on trial charged with conspiracy and registering bets he might as well have stayed at "home."

The sun-tanned witness was placed on the stand as the 16th day of the trial opened and promptly refused to answer any questions on the ground that it might incriminate himself.

He had been duly warned of his constitutional rights by Judge Joseph L. Hurley before Asst. Atty.-Gen. Arnold Salisbury, 2d, started his questioning.

"I don't intend to question you regarding the defendant Max Sagansky," Salisbury said. "Do you wish to answer any questions?"

"I don't desire to do so," Sagansky replied.

"On what grounds do you refuse?"

"I refuse to answer any questions on the grounds it might incriminate me."

He was excused from the stand and returned to Norfolk where he is serving a two and one-half to three-year term after his plea of guilty in Suffolk court in March, 1943, to charges of operating a fictitious lottery and conspiracy.

He was followed to the stand by State Police Corp. George E. Brady, who was taken under cross examination by Atty. William H. Lewis of defense counsel. Brady spent most of the day on the stand yesterday explaining the parlance of race tracks and bookmakers to the judge and jury and recounting the alleged operations of the defendants.

Present in the courtroom was Police Capt. Edward J. Keating, former head of the South End station, who was expected to testify as the state's final witness.

MARINERS BUY BOND—Gretchen Kenney of the First National Bank receives a check from Seaman John Sekon . . . and turns over a $1000 war bond purchased by the ship's company of the S. S. American Mariner, training vessel. The ship, at Central Wharf, is open to the public through Thursday as part of national observance of Maritime Week. Lieut.-Comdr. F. X. Dougherty, ship's executive officer, looks on.

Kennedy's Postwar Ship Plan Stirs U. S.

Joseph P. Kennedy's proposal to scrap or transfer to foreign tonnage the major part of America's merchant marine after the war provoked nationwide comment today in military and shipping circles.

The plan of the former Maritime Commission chairman, and former ambassador to Britain, was outlined in Boston at a National Maritime Day dinner, and in making it Kennedy admitted it was startling "to suggest that we do anything with our surplus ships but retain all of them and wave the American flag around them."

J. P. Kennedy

At a similar Maritime Day observance in Savannah, Ga., the present Maritime Commission head, Rear Adm. Emory S. Land, predicted that there will be no merchant ship graveyards after this war such as followed the last war.

Instead of maintaining the biggest merchant marine, popularly proposed at around 50-million tons, Kennedy advocated "the best and fastest fleet" of about 10-million tons. He said "slow moving, cumbersome Liberty Ships, known as Ugly Ducklings," which make up about two-thirds of our present fleet, would be of doubtful commercial use after the war.

"Let me explain why I think we cannot insist upon the biggest," he said. "Others have something to say about this. To Britain, Norway and Denmark, for example, a merchant fleet is not a matter of dalliance but of day-to-day survival. With these nations it is import or starve.

"Underlying my approach to the shipping problem is a conviction that our Merchant Marine will thrive only under conditions of private ownership and private operation. We need a Merchant Marine in this country, but we don't want one that will prove unduly burdensome to the taxpayer, nor do we want to ruin those nations that have to depend upon the sea for a living, especially since some of them happen to be our best customers," he concluded.

Fire Kills Two In Pawtucket

PAWTUCKET, R. I., May 2.—Trapped by flames when fire swept their cottage home in Lonsdale ave., Albert Dyson, 63, and his wife, 61, were fatally burned early today. Their daughter, Mrs. Robert Hartley, was slightly burned on the arms in carrying her eight-months-old son to safety.

The elderly couple were found in a bedroom by police and firemen and rushed to Memorial Hospital, where Mrs. Dyson died shortly after she was admitted. Her husband lived two hours.

Cause of the fire was under investigation today. Officials said the Dysons and their daughter were awakened by smoke and the crackling of flames. The victims were cut off from escape by heavy smoke.

Grabbing her baby from its crib, Mrs. Hartley had reached the street with the infant when firemen arrived. Her husband is on sea duty in the Navy, police said.

$40,000 Wool Fire Snarls War Traffic

Thousands of war workers were delayed reaching their jobs today by a downtown wool district traffic tangle, caused by a three-alarm blaze which resulted in $40,000 damage in the Eastern Wool Warehouse, Summer st.

Police closed Summer st. to traffic from Dorchester ave. to the South Boston viaduct and workers at the Army base and the South Boston Navy Yard were forced to travel a roundabout way through Northern ave.

Further delays were caused by a traffic blockade, extending in all directions from the area due to the heavy concentration of fire apparatus at the scene and the closing of the Summer st. artery.

The fire was discovered by Patrick O'Malley of Lyons st., Dorchester, employed in an adjoining building.

Second and third alarms were turned in as the flames burst through windows of the seven-story building.

Wool valued at several hundred thousand dollars was endangered for a time until firemen got the blaze under control.

Boys' Trial in El Attack Put Over

Trial of six youths on assault charges was postponed until June 6 today by Judge Walsh in Dorchester juvenile court at the request of Defense Atty. Herbert Callahan who said he was unable to appear because he is counsel in the gambling conspiracy trial underway in Suffolk Superior Court.

James Brandon, 17, of Josephine st., and William Austin, 17, of Ridgewood st., both of Dorchester, were charged with assault and battery on Philip Berger, 16, of Wales st., Dorchester. One juvenile faced a similar charge and three others were charged with assault.

Liquor Imports High

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Liquor imports in April reached the second highest monthly total on record—5,183,000 gallons—on the basis of internal revenue stamp sales reported today by the Treasury. This was 685,000 gallons less than in March.

Squalus Fights Japs On Fifth Anniversary

Today marked the fifth anniversary of the sinking of the USS Squalus. The submarine went down off the Isle of Shoals, N. H., in 1939, with the loss of 26 lives.

Resurrected in a major salvage operation, the Squalus was reconditioned and renamed, and today is in action against Japanese shipping.

End Juvenile Crime, Plea of Foresters

More than 2000 delegates attending the 65th annual convention of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters at Swampscott planned to present a petition today calling for action toward supression of juvenile delinquency.

'Mercy Trip' Baby's Name on Danger List

The name of 11-months-old Priscilla Hatch, who was rushed to Boston through three states by ambulance with police motor escort in each state, was placed on the danger list today at Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Suffering from tracheitis, a throat ailment obstructing breathing, the baby was brought here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hatch of South Berwick, Me., in the hope of saving her life. Police of three states assisted in facilitating the "mercy" trip.

Nab 2 in $6500 Worcester Theft

WORCESTER, May 23—Arrested as they waited in Union Station for a New York-bound train today, two youths were charged with breaking into a Main st. jewelry store and stealing diamonds, watches and rings valued at more than $6500.

In Central Court the pair pleaded not guilty and were held in bonds of $10,000 each for the grand jury.

Police Lieut. David O. Stonequist said one of them, Norman Williams, 22, of Birmingham, England, admitted he was a deserter from the British navy.

Charged with Williams was Raymond Kincade, 22, of New Orleans, La. Both were wearing civilian clothes.

'Painless' Tax Bill Goes to F. D.

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—In an emphatic answer to the annual March tax howl over decimals and digits, Congress today sent to the White House legislation simplifying the return process for 50,000,000 income taxpayers.

Leaders said the President certainly will sign the "streamliner" into law.

Passed unanimously by the House, and by a voice vote in the Senate—thus setting a popularity record for a major tax measure—the "painless" taz bill would relieve some 30,000 persons of the necessity of ever computing another Federal Income Tax return. In addition it simplifies tax paying procedures for the other 20,000,000.

Final action came at the House, on a motion by Chairman Doughton (D.) of North Carolina, of the Ways and Means Committee, accepted technical Senate amendments.

The measure rearranges the whole individual income tax structure, discarding the two-year-old wartime "victory" tax and setting new normal and surtax rates and exemptions—while keeping actual tax burdens at substantially present levels for most persons.

Effective next Jan. 1, the withholding system would be adjusted to take the full tax liability forchildless married couples. This wage and salary persons earning up to $5000. Thus the withholding levy would become the actual tax, beginning next year, for 30,000,000 taxpayers. They would owe no more at the end of the tax year.

No change would be made in amounts withheld from pay envelopes this year, but the government itself would compute the taxes on 1944 income for those with wages and salaries of $5000 and less.

The measure would add some 150,000 new taxpayers earning betwene $555 and $624, while reshifting to the status of income taxpayers approximately 9,000,000 persons now subject to the Victory tax, but with incomes not large enough to come under present income levies.

Generally, in the reshuffling to attain a two-tak system to supplant the present three-way—victory, normal and surtax—take from the taxpayers' pockets, the legislatiaon eases the burden for persons with large families, while increasing somewhat the load for results from a flat $500 personal exemption for each taxpayer and dependent to replace the present scale of $1200 for a married couple plus $350 for each defendent.

It does not disturb the present $1500 exemption allowed men and women in the armed services above their regular family status credits.

To provide "freedom from computation" relief aat the close of this year, pending January effective date of the new withholding system, all those with wages and salaries up to $5000 and receiving no more than $100 from sources not subject to withholding will be permitted simply to file a withholding receipt in place of a regular return.

These taxpayers will list their dependents on the reverse side of this receipt, to be furnished by their employers, and enter the amounts of "other income," if any. They then will mail the receipt to their local ta xcollector, who in turn will compute the tax and send a bill.

Insanity to Be Defense In 4 Army Camp Killings

CAMP ANZA, Cal., May 23 (AP)—On the contention that 2d Lieut. Beaufort Swancutt suffered from epilepsy, amnesia and insanity, his counsel today sought to convince a general court martial that he should be spared capital punishment for a shooting here March 5 that killed four persons and wounded four others.

The death penalty, upon conviction, is optional with the military court.

Swancutt, 31-year-old resident of La Crosse, Wis., was to have shipped overseas the day after the burst of gunfire brought death to Miss Dorothy Douglas and Miss Lourdine Livermore, both 19; Capt. Aubrey G. Serfling of Preston, Minn., and Policeman Arthur B. Simpson of Riverside.

SUBJECT TO EPILEPSY

Chief defense counsel Capt. Delphine D. Rasco said he intended to show that Swancutt is insane now and was at the time of the shootings with which he is charged, that he suffered from a form of epilepsy, and that he had lapses of memory.

Lieut. Harry J. Light, of Bridgeport, Pa., the first of eight persons to be shot, testified that Swancutt appeared to be in full control of his faculties, as he was seated at the Officers' Club with Light and the two young women. He said Swancutt, as the foursome had been served their third drink, suddenly asked: "Light, have you enjoyed life? Do you think you will go overseas?"

"I answered that I tried to get the most out of everything, and that the Army would decide about overseas duty.

REACHED FOR PISTOL

"Then Swancutt informed me: 'Light, you're not going overseas. I'm not going, either. Neither of us will leave here alive tonight.' He reached for his pistol, and, as I instinctively came toward him, he fired. I fell to the floor. I heard other shots. I looked up again to see Swancutt point his gun at me, but there was no other shot. He then pointed the gun at himself. It didn't fire. He ran from the club house."

Lieut. George W. Woody, a Negro, testified he was present when Swancutt routed his commander, Capt. Serfling, from bed, demanded and obtained ammunition, and then fired twice into Serfling's body after shouting: "I'm not going to live out the night, and there is no reason why you should."

Sergt. John E. Roberts, also a Negro, told the court he was forced to drive Swancutt in a staff car to nearby Arlington, where two Riverside policemen accosted Swancutt. Simpson, the prosecution charges, was mortally wounded as he called to Swancutt to drop his gun, and Swancutt then was shot and arrested by Policeman Ernest Cole.

Reunion With Wife, Daughters Thrills West Newton Air Hero

Newton Air Hero Says Send Photos

"There is one thing that servicemen overseas do not get enough of. That is pictures from home. They want pictures of the baby and mother and even of Muggsy the dog. Send them pictures."

This was the plea today of Maj. Earl D. Carlson of West Newton, home on furlough after 25 bombing raids over enemy-occupied Europe where he won the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters.

More thrilling than all his bombing experiences, the major said, was the joy of reunion with his wife, Pearl, and two baby daughters, Judy, 2½ years, and Paula, 10½ months.

Home for a 30-day rest, Maj. Carlson will spend part of that period in visiting the families of 25 men of his squadron who were shot down in action.

"Hamburg has been really creamed by the bombers," he declared. "It was Coventryized, and must be almost entirely useless." Fifty per cent of Berlin he thought was gutted.

Participating in three bombing attacks on Berlin, Maj. Carlson said, "strangely anti-aircraft fire there is not as bad as at some of our smaller targets on the invasion coast. Flak at Cherbourg is the heaviest and most accurate in Europe."

His first bombing raid on the submarine pens at St. Nazaire, France, and his last, on Berlin, were the two most thrilling raids of his experience he declared.

Extra Gas Denied Party-Boat Fishing

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration denied today a petition of eastern states congressmen that charter, or party boat operators be classified as commercial fishermen and given more gasoline.

OPA Administrator Chester Bowles wrote Rep. Auchincloss (R.) of New Jersey, spokesman for the congressional group, that "we have given very careful consideration to your request, supported by nine other members of Congress," but until the supply of gasoline is increased substantially the request must be denied.

Nazi Comet?

LONDON, May 23 (INS)—The German DNB agency reported today a new comet has been discovered by a Prof. Vaeisaelae of the astronomical observatory of a Finnish university.

Identified by DNB as "the second comet discovered this year," it was named in honor of its discoverer, the comet Vaeisaelae (1944). Its period of revolution around the sun is approximately eight years, DNB said.

Circus Opens Here Tonight

Hearts of the youngsters raced gloriously today and those of many an oldster stepped up a few beats. The circus is back in town.

Yes, everything is in readiness for tonight's opening of the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey show in the Boston Garden, with seats for the initial performance decided by War Bond purchases.

The elephants, more talented than ever, will do a military drill. And there's nothing the matter with the shapely and beautiful maidens who ride them.

For the kids, there are the clowns—100 of them. Yes, the truant officer is going to be busy for the next two weeks.

167,673 Veterans Get U. S. Civil Service Jobs

WASHINGTON, May 23 (INS)—The Civil Service Commission announced that 31,263 war veterans were placed in federal civil service jobs in the first three months of 1944, bringing the total of such placements to 167,673 for the 15 months ending March 31.

The commission said in addition thousands of veterans have been re-employed in the federal service in accordance with provision of the Selective Training and Service Act.

Ask $4070 Damages In Icelander's Death

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—A request has been filed with Congress for an appropriation of $4070 to be paid to the parents of an Icelander, slain in Hanarfjordur, Iceland, during an altercation with two American soldiers, before Pearl Harbor.

Boy's Death Laid To Ride on Cage

A sorrowing family today planned funeral services for Donald Whitney, 12, of Washington sq., Charlestown, who found tragedy instead of joy in his long-dreamed visit to welcome the circus to Boston.

Donald Whitney

Donald and his pals were on hand early when the magic entourage rolled into the Boston & Maine railroad yards behind the Boston Garden. They watched breathlessly as the animals were transferred from trains into their cages and rolled along the siding. Then, according to police, Donald mounted a coupling behind a tractor pulling a lions' cage only to slip beneath the wheels and be crushed to death.

Donald was pronounced dead on arrival at Massachusetts General Hospital, where he was identified by his sister, Mrs. Grace Sherman of Mt. Vernon st., Charlestown. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Whitney.

'Putzi' Seen U. S. Spy Witness

WASHINGTON, May 23 (INS)—A defense lawyer in the mass sedition conspiracy trial of 29 defendants declared today he had learned that Ernst (Putzi) Hanfstaengl, Harvard-educated, one-time friend of Adolf Hitler, is slated to be a prosecution witness.

Meanwhile, defense lawyers were completing opening statements, limited to an hour each, with some waiving the talks, and it appeared possible the government might call its first witness sometime today.

Ira Chase Koehne, counsel for Lois DeLafayette Washburn and two others, said he had learned that Hanfstaengl is in Washington, staying at a Georgetown home, awaiting a call as a government witness.

Pittsfield Mother to See 4 Sons Celebrate One Mass

PITTSFIELD, May 23 (AP)—Mrs. Mary E. Reilly was looking forward today to seeing four of her sons—all priests—on the altar of St. Charles Church on June 4.

John Reilly, the youngest of the boys to enter the priesthood, will be ordained on June 3 at St. Mary's Cathedral, Trenton, N. J., by the Most Rev. William Griffin, bishop of Trenton.

The next day he will celebrate mass in his parish church, St. Charles, and assisting him will be his brothers, the Rev. Thomas B. Reilly, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Westfield; the latter's twin brother, the Rev. Edward V. Reilly of St. John's Church, Worcester, and the Rev. Joseph M. Reilly of Sacred Heart Church, Holyoke.

John attended Holy Cross College and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore. He has four other brothers, James, vice-president and general sales manager of the Colgate Palmolive Peet Co., Jersey City, N. J., and William, Francis and Martin, all of Pittsfield. His father died in 1936.

4 Michigan Strikes Keep 16,000 Off Job

DETROIT, May 23 (AP)—More than 16,000 employes of four Michigan firms were off their jobs today in labor disputes as picketing continued at the Highland Park plant of Chrysler Corp., despite an order to union officials to appear and explain their defiance of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) International Union and the War Labor Board.

Production of Penicillin, blood plasma and other medical supplies was halted at two Detroit plants of Parke, Davis & Co. as 1900 employes carried out a strike authorized Saturday in a National Labor Relations Board election. At least 2600 more workers were idle in disputes at the Chevrolet transmission division at Saginaw and the Campbell, Wyant & Cannon Foundry Co. at Muskegon.

Chrysler strikers, who have made about 11,500 idle in seven plants, also were summoned to a mass meeting tonight at which UAW-CIO President R. J. Thomas, Vice-President Walter P. Reutner and Secretary-Treasurer George F. Addes are to speak. Warning "your jobs and your union are at stake," Thomas urged 100 per cent attendance.

President William Jenkins and other officers of Local 490 were ordered before the international union's executive board "with facts and witnesses" to explain defiance of the War Labor Board and international union officials.

The board is expected to ask local officers to show cause why the international union should not assume temporary administration of the local's affairs and provide for an election of new officers in 60 days.

GI Bill Rushed Toward Vote

By FRANK REILLY
Boston American Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 23 — As the joint Senate-House conference committee on the American Legion's "GI Bill of Rights" resumed deliberations today, legislative leaders predicted the measure may be reported out to both branches either tomorrow or Thursday.

Harmony prevailed at the opening session of the committee, and anticipated clashes between representatives of the two branches over the education, loan and employment provisions of the bill failed to develop, members reported.

Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts, only woman member of the joint committee, termed the meeting "most harmonious."

"As a result I am hopeful that the bill will be speedily reported back to Congress," she said.

Meanwhile, former Gov. John Stelle of Illinois, member of the American Legion committee which drafted the original bill, conferred with Brig.-Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Administration. In the afternoon he submitted to the joint conference committee a brief, outlining recommendations for agreement by the group on matters the Legion favors and which also have the approval of Gen. Hines.

Will Rogers Returns Home

CLAREMORE, Okla., May 23 (AP)—Will Rogers is back in Claremore, the town he made famous.

His body was placed in a stone crypt beside the Will Rogers Memorial Museum, one of Oklahoma's most beautiful buildings and located on the plains that Rogers loved. Rogers and Wiley Post, another famed Oklahoman, died in an Alaska plane crash nine years ago.

Movement of the body from California was kept secret at the request of the family. Less than 100 persons were present for the brief, simple ceremony.

Saltonstall Gets Hospital Report

Gov. Saltonstall today studied a report from State Auditor Thomas J. Buckley detailing spoilage of nearly 25 tons of vegetables at Worcester State Hospital and the questioned legality of purchase of former WPA garments from the city of Worcester.

The auditor's report also stated the hospital canteen had $823 in unrecorded outstanding accounts payable and that a physician had other than members of his own family living in a home furnished on the grounds of by the state.

Buckley raised a question as to the legality of the purchase of the WPA garments, maintaining that they were furnished free to the city by the federal government and thus could not be sold.

Leather Strikers Prepare To Seek Jobs Elsewhere

PEABODY, May 23—One hundred and fifty striking engineers and firemen, who have tied up North Shore leather plants since last Thursday, today prepared to carry out a unanimous union vote to seek work in other industries rather than return to their jobs without an increase in wages.

The strikers' decision was announced by their counsel, Atty. William F. Regan. He said that as a result of the vote not to go back to the tanneries, picket lines would be withdrawn today from the Hunt-Rankin Co. and the Carr Leather Co., where efforts had been made to deliver coal.

The presidents of the two plants, Burt W. Rankin and Arthur J. Carr, had donned overalls to superintend operations in the boiler rooms of their properties, union officials said.

Manufacturers awaited action by the War Labor Board on the strikers' threat to quit their jobs. Although 150 firemen and engineers are on strike, their refusal to work has forced 3000 tannery workers out of jobs.

Lumber Mill Strike Spreads

SEATTLE, May 23 (AP)—Production of lumber supplies, listed by the War Production Board as the nation's foremost vital materials shortage, was stalled in more than 40 plants today in the great Pacific Northwest lumber belt.

Thousands were idle, estimates of the number off duty ranged from 13,000 to 15,000, the walkouts—in protest against a wage increase denial — were spreading rapidly, and more mills may close tomorrow in eastern Washington around Spokane where a mass meeting is scheduled tonight.

All mills in Tacoma, where around 4500 are employed, were closed, including the St. Paul-Tacoma Lumber Co., one of the world's largest Douglas fir operators.

In Seattle and Portland the situation was almost the same. Only the U. S. Plywood Corp. was running in Seattle; 1000 AFL members and 1300 CIO members quit in Portland, closing all but one plant and leaving another running part time.

Reports from Everett, Roy, Eatonville Hoquiam and Aberdeen, Wash., told the same story.

Union officials termed the walkouts wildcat, and spokesmen issued public statements in an attempt to keep the men on the job.

Thus far the walkout has affected only mills; loggers are still on the job.

Reds Plot Lasting De Gaulle Regime

By DAVID SENTNER
Boston American Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, May 23—Flouting American opposition, Soviet Russia is on the verge of recognizing Gen. Charles De Gaulle's self-constituted provisional government as the government of France when the latter is liberated, it was learned today.

The State Department consistently has opposed the ambition of De Gaulle to be recognized as head of the provisional government of France on the ground that the French people must choose their own leadership through democratic processes.

Marshal Stalin already has accorded complete recognition to De Gaulle's Committee of National Liberation and exchanged ambassadors with this regime.

The British Foreign Office is reported to be bringing pressure on the State Department to revise its non-recognition policy regarding De Gaulle in order to remove any additional headaches for Gen. Eisenhower in the invasion of the Continent.

The impending Soviet recognition of the De Gaulle group as the de facto government of France was seen as one more step in the clear-cut plan of Stalin to dominate Europe.

De Gaulle, aside from having two Communists on his committee, is considered a puppet of the Kremlin, and his enthusiasm for the Soviet was reflected in a recent speech in which he referred to "dear and powerful Russia."

Dorothy Kilgallen writes "Broadway's Voice" every day for the Boston American.

Land U-Boat?

LANCASTER, Pa., May 23 (AP)—Police here abruptly ended a 1200-mile jaunt of a merchant seaman in a strange vehicle with a torpedo snout, one center headlight, airplane cockpit, belching flames from two exhaust pipes but without license plates.

The owner, who told police he traveled from New York to Detroit and then here without being stopped, must get a tow or have his vehicle licensed before he can drive it to Philadelphia, 70 miles away.

School Raises Called Insult

The Boston Municipal Research Bureau warned today that the city faces a higher tax rate this year and condemned the action of the school committee in increasing wages during the progress of a survey to determine the department's efficiency as "an insult to the taxpayers."

The action was defended by Thomas Eccles, president of the High School Masters' Ass'n, and Elizabeth J. O'Neil, president of the Council of Presidents of School Organizations.

The committee approved a $45 weekly minimum for senior school custodians and voted unanimously to grant the increase immediately at a cost of $32,500 for the first year.

Jap Gives Captives Priest's Message

By ROBERT EUNSON

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, May 19 (Delayed) (AP)—A Japanese soldier carried a final Christian message from a German Catholic priest to two captured American airmen awaiting their fate near Madang, New Guinea, last July.

This story was told to me today by August Beuers, mission brother from Muenster, Ger., who was among the 100 missionaries liberated when the Americans seized Hollandia from the Japanese last month.

Beuers said he was bound hand and foot and was lying on the floor of a native hut when Japanese soldiers brought in two Americans.

The Japanese untied Beuers and used the ropes to bind the Americans, who were weary after a long walk through the jungle before their capture.

TOOK FOOD AWAY

Through an interpreter, Beuers related that the Americans were kept bound on the floor, with no food and very little water for several days.

"One day a native brought us some bananas but Japanese guards took them from him and ate them in front of us," said Beuers.

"Finally, they took the Americans away. A few days later a Japanese soldier named Torino came in and said Maj. Natehara, our captor, had ordered the Americans executed. We didn't know whether he was speaking the truth. He told us the Americans had asked for a Bible but Natehara had refused.

"'I can't cut their heads off without giving them a Christian message or they will come back and haunt me,' Torino told us."

TELLS MESSAGE

The German then related how Father Luttman, a German missionary who later died in captivity, gave Torino the Biblical phrases: "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you. I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am ye may be also."

Beuers said Torino spoke English well and memorized the message.

"Several days later the natives told us Torino had cut off the Americans' heads," Beuers said. "But we don't really know what happened."

Elizabeth O'Brien Rites Thursday

Funeral services for Miss Elizabeth M. O'Brien, investigator in the freight claims department of the New Haven railroad, will be held from her home, Hawthorne st., Lynn, Thursday, followed by a solemn requiem mass at St. Mary's Chapel at 9 a. m. Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

The daughter of Mrs. Delia O'Brien and the late Patrick H. O'Brien, Miss O'Brien was a native of Victor, N. Y., and a graduate of Lynn English High School. Besides her mother she leaves three brothers, John Gerald, an assistant city editor of The Boston Herald; Capt. Thomas F., of the Army Medical Corps, now in the South Pacific; Sergt. Vincent P., U. S. A., at Fort Devens, and a sister, Mrs. Mabel M. McLaughlin of Lynn.

Pantry Peril

Grinning his apologies, Mayor Tobin today took a temporary vacation from handshaking.

The city's chief executive explained to visitors that he was nursing a broken bone in his right hand, suffered in a freak accident in the pantry of his Jamaica Plain home. He misjudged white reaching for a jar of preserves and the big bottle crashed down on his hand.

The accident occurred on the mayor's 43rd birthday anniversary.

Rain Ends Fear Of Forest Fires

Fair and warmer weather was predicted today after intermittent rain brought an end to the menace of forest fires and gave Victory gardeners hope for shrivelling crops.

Bay State woodland fires were blotted out by the rain except at Fall River, Tyngsboro and Shutesbury and these were halted and under control.

About 20 fires in Maine, many of which had burned for two days with timber damage of $250,000, were also under control.

Non-Stop Drive To Gather Paper

Boston's non-stop drive to send endless tons of waste paper and tin to the fighting fronts centered in the two South Boston wards and in Wards 8, 9 and 10 in Roxbury today as the pickup trucks made a house-to-house canvass.

At the same time the campaign to salvage paper from business offices and commercial establishments was carried into the South Boston wool district covering A, B, C, and D sts., to First st., Summer st. to E st., and Melcher, Granite, Wormwoods, Binford and Fargo sts.

The Boston salvage committee announced that its award for a resident contributing to last week's collection in Ward 20 was won by James C. Hammond of Howitt rd., West Roxbury, whose name was drawn from among the thousands contributing scrap in his district.

The committee reminded those residents in districts still to be covered that they may participate in the drawings by attaching their names and addresses to the bundles they put out for the collectors.

Tomorrow the trucks will canvass Wards 11 and 12 of Roxbury and Wards 13 and 14 of Dorchester, while the downtown drive will center in the market and wharf sections.

Bricker Calls CIO Political Action Group 'Dangerous'

HOUSTON, Tex., May 23 (INS)—Gov. John W. Bricker called the CIO Political Action Committee a "powerful and dangerous group which is far more active than the Democratic National Committee in campaigning for a fourth term for the New Deal."

This year, the Republican candidate for president said, "We have been reliably informed that the CIO is prepared to spend five million dollars" to perpetuate the present Administration.

"Never in all history has there been such a program of spending and pressure as the one which has been planned by this organization which feeds off the laboring man and woman and seeks to dominate our government with radical and communistic schemes," Bricker declared.

"The Republican party and the Democratic party have a great deal in common right now—neither has anything to say about what goes on in Washington."

He added that a Republican victory this year not only will preserve the Republican party but the Democratic party as well. "It will once more establish the two-party system of government which has served our nation so well, the Ohio governor said.

Swinging sharply from a discourse on the New Deal to President Roosevelt, Bricker said the President's High Command plans to picture the President as the Commander-In-Chief of a war "that only his clique can win" and to emphasize international problems at the expense of domestic issues.

ENDS 5-YEAR SIEGE OF CONSTIPATION!

"Now as Regular as Anyone!" Says H. C. Durand

Here's a sincere, unsolicited letter every disappointed "doser" will want to read:

"I'm 82 years old, and have been constipated over 5 years, going as much as 6 days without a movement. Pills and laxatives would relieve me only for the day I took them. Next day I'd be as bad as ever. Then I tried KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. Am now on my second box, and as regular as anyone could want, thanks to regular use of your wonderful product!" Mr. H. C. Durand, 221 N. Columbus Ave., Freeport, Long Island, N. Y.

Sounds like "magic," doesn't it? Yet, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN really can, and does, get at a common cause of constipation—lack of certain dietary "cellulosic" elements! That's because it is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements—which help the friendly colonic flora fluff up and prepare the colonic wastes for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative! Doesn't work by "sweeping out"! It is simply a gentle-acting, "regulating" food!

If your constipation is of this type, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN or several ALL-BRAN muffins daily. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't find welcome relief! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Scores to File for State Office; John F. Quits Race

Scores of candidates for state office, several of them seeking the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, journeyed to the State House with nomination papers today in the wake of withdrawal by former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald as a candidate for the latter office. Deadline for filing is 5 p. m.

Gov. Saltonstall, who appointed Sinclair Weeks, senator, has filed for the Republican nomination for the post.

Among Democrats who hope to oppose Saltonstall for the Senate seat are former-Cong. Richard M. Russell of Cambridge, Mayor John H. Corcoran of Cambridge, Registrar of Deeds Paul V. McDonough of Fall River, Atty. John J. Murray of Milton, former State Sen. Joseph A. Langone of the North End, and Edward A. Ryan of Worcester. Former School Committeeman Joseph Lee has promised to file papers for both the Senate and State Treasurer and will withdraw from one of the contests.

Former Lieut.-Gov. Francis E. Kelly has filed nomination papers to oppose Mayor Tobin and State Treasurer Francis X. Hurley for the Democratic nomination for governor. Papers of both Tobin and Hurley have been filed also.

Lieut.-Gov. Horace T. Cahill has filed for the Republican nomination to succeed the governor.

Dist.-Atty. Hugh A. Cregg of Essex County has eliminated himself as candidate for the Republican nomination for attorney-general, while papers have been filed in behalf of Sheriff Frederick R. Sullivan of Suffolk County. Sullivan, now serving in the Pacific, seeks renomination.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Watermelon prices will be sharply reduced this summer "from last season's inflated prices," the OPA announced.

Trout Tale

LACONIA, N. H., May 23 (AP)—Fisherman Archie White sports success—he's landed the trout he's been trying to get for three years.

It weighed 10 pounds, eight ounces. The "monster" squaretail, described by witnesses as "the grand-daddy of them all," was taken in Hubbard Brook, West Thornton.

How does White know it's the same trout? Well, this is a fish story.

New Deal, Antis Poll in Texas

By the Associated Press

After all the fanfare of an election campaign, Texas Democrats convened today with their choice of the state's delegates to cast 48 votes in the national convention apparently hinging on the outcome of a battle between administration and anti-fourth term factions.

At the same time, supporters of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio contested at a Republican convention for Texas' 33 GOP delegates.

Democrats went to the polls in Florida to decide between former Congressman Millard Caldwell and Rep. Lex Green as their nominee for Governor.

Maryland and Georgia Republicans also scheduled meetings during the day. In Maryland the State's 16 delegates will be uninstructed but Republican leaders there said they favored Dewey's candidacy. In Georgia, at least one district representative out of the 14 delegates already is pledged to Dewey.

Disc Gently Removes Facial Hair

Beauty

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

SUCH PRETTY SKIN and so pleasantly smooth! Isn't that the nicest compliment anyone could pay you? Or are you one of the many unfortunates . . . who has a chin stubble . . . which you keep fingering with conscious uneasiness of its negative charm quality?

Or do you constantly mirror your upper lip to see and appreciate in disgust . . . how noticeable that unwanted growth is? Need I tell you how detrimental any kind of a hedge on your chin or lip is to your complexion appeal?

If you have hair on your face . . . just worrying about its increased growth won't help the cause . . . it requires the action . . . simple yet effective . . . of a rosy disc . . . containing a special formula for hair removal. Just a few gentle strokes of this disc over the affected areas on your face . . . and the hair will disappear like magic . . . in just about as much time . . . and with as little effort as it takes to powder your nose.

SIMPLE AND NEAT

Can you think of anything simpler, neater, more polite than erasing unwanted hair on your face? That's just what you do to this unusual facial depilatory . . . erase the hair like you erase chalked whiteness from a blackboard's surface. It is polite to your nose for it is odorless. It is dry nad can't spill . . . and it is a tested formula that is known to bring beautiful results.

Designed for unwanted facial hair exclusively, it is not to be used on the arms and legs. But if you seek thrillingly smooth and sleek arms and legs . . . in readiness for the bare-look fashions when plenty of arm will be displayed this summer . . . and for bare-leg glamour of nylon sheerness . . . the creators of this facial depilatory have perfected a wonder stone to achieve these tricks for you.

Actually it is a pumice stone which you rub in circular motion over your arms and legs for the magical dropping off of hair growth.

For the name of this facial hair remover, as well as the name of the leg and arm silkifier, phone the Beauty Dept., LIBerty 4000, or write me, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

TO ACHIEVE FACIAL LOVELINESS, a girl must remove unwanted bristles on her chin and upper lip . . . for that gardenia-petal smoothness that bespeaks feminine loveliness . . . an all-over complexion skin-you-love-to-touch smoothness thrilling to the eye and hand. Warner Star Alexis Smith poses.

Fashion

FASHION CHANGES for the uniformed girl as for her civilian sister . . . and those trim, tailored but feminine versions of officers' uniforms . . . in tropical worsted . . . which you see on WACs these days . . . are her summer garb. Air-WAC Jean Carrier, former model, is mighty proud of her new uniform . . . designed by Knox . . . and complete with garrison cop of matching material . . . but designed with flattering curve to hug the entire backsweep of the head.—R. Big Handbags Truly Welcome Item

By BETTINA BEDWELL

BIG, capacious handbags, the kind in which you can carry quick-change accessories, and other odds and ends of this "carry-your-own" period, are a welcome addition to our accessory fashions. The nicest of them are made of good leather, and though they cost more, they are well worth the money, for they wear well, clean easily and age in beauty.

One such is sketched. It's from Miller Penn, one of our best handbag designers, and is made of real calfskin and stitched in white which makes it decorative as well as useful.

Other leather accessories are sketched. A big belt of black leather and a matching bracelet, both sporting gold hearts on a shield for decoration. You wear them with your shirtwaist and skirt costume. They come from Phelps Associates.

Choice Asparagus Dishes

By MARTHA LEE

CANNED ASPARAGUS is a delicate vegetable, both in flavor and in texture. Now that it can be obtained without ration points, home cooks will find it to their advantage to use more of it in meal service.

Because the vegetable is delicate, it lends itself to various types of preparation. Some simple suggestions that you may have forgotten about during the months the ration points were high on this product, may be all you need to get more variety from this food.

ASPARAGUS WITH OLIVE BUTTER

One of the simple, yet festive ways of serving it is with sliced ripe olives. Mix the sliced ripe olives with melted butter. Meantime heat the asparagus tips in their own liquid. Arrange the asparagus on toast and pour some of the olive and butter mixture over it. This might be served as a vegetable with meats, or it might be the main entree for lunch with crisp bacon and a salad.

Creamed salmon, tuna, or deviled ham are good to pour over the asparagus tips which have been arranged on toast. Never use so much sauce that the tips are entirely covered, but pour it so that the tips show.

CREAMED ASPARAGUS WITH EGGS

2 tbsp. butter or margarine
2 tbsp. flour 1 cup milk
½ tsp. salt 6 slices toast
⅛ tsp. pepper
¼ tsp. dry mustard
⅔ cup liquid from asparagus
1 No. 2 can asparagus
4 hard-cooked eggs
Paprika or chopped parsley

Melt the butter in a pan, add flour and seasonings. Mix until smooth. Add asparagus liquid and milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add asparagus and sliced eggs. Cover and simmer very gently 3 or 4 minutes or until heated through. Serve on toast and sprinkle each serving with paprika or chopped parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Canned asparagus has always been a natural for salads. Chill the cans before opening them. A simple salad might be just asparagus tips on salad greens with a French dressing to which some chopped pimiento and finely diced celery has been added.

Another salad suggestion is canned asparagus marinated in French dressing, drained, and served on lettuce or escarole with additional French dressing or mayonnaise. Then garnish with slices of hard-cooked eggs or deviled eggs. If desired, the stalks of asparagus for each serving may be slipped through a ring of green or sweet red pepper or pimiento and flanked on each side with a deviled egg half.

MUSHROOM AND ASPARAGUS PARFAIT

2 lbs. mushrooms
2 small cans asparagus tips
2 hard-cooked eggs
3 tbsp. butter or margarine
¼ tbsp. flour 1½ tsp. salt
3 cups milk ⅛ tsp. pepper
1 tsp. chopped chives

Wash and stem the mushrooms, reserving the stems for soup. Saute the sliced tops in 4 tbsp. fat until tender, about 5 minutes. Meanwhile melt 4 tbsp. fat in a saucepan, add flour and stir until smooth. Then add the milk gradually, the chives, salt and pepper. When well blended and thickened, add the mushrooms, asparagus and sliced hard-cooked eggs. Reheat and serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

My Day

By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

NEW YORK, Monday—While I was up at Hyde Park, I spent a very interesting hour hearing Dean Mildred Thompson of Vassar College tell me something about the meeting in London and the formation of a United Nations organization for postwar education.

Cong. Fulbright was chairman of our delegation, which was composed of very distinguished men and one woman!

It seems to me that this subject is one in which we should all be tremendously interested. We know that it was through education that the Nazi ideology gained such a firm hold on German youth.

Just as education helped bring about war in Europe, we will now have to bend our energies to make education bring about peace in the future.

★ ★ ★

SOMEONE wrote me the other day to remind me of the part which Clara Barton played in the signing of the Treaty of Geneva and the founding of the International Red Cross.

Certainly we have come to take the functions of the Red Cross for granted today, and it is hard to believe that at any time the Red Cross did not exist.

Florence Nightingale and Clara Barton were two women who fully realized the importance of an idea, and went to work to see that that idea was carried out during their lifetimes. They saw that it remained as an organization for future service.

If these two women could accomplish so much in days gone by, when women had far less opportunity for public service than they have today, surely the women of today can do much to bring the questions of national and international education before the people of the world.

They can insist that we give it its proper place in the future, so that it may serve the cause of world peace.

Engraved Cards For Miss

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

As one of my family's graduation presents to my daughter (for their first use to be enclosed with her high school graduation invitations) we are giving her some visiting-cards. Should "Miss" be engraved before her names? And what type of engraving would you advise?

MOTHER.

Yes, "Miss" should be before her name on her cards. Ask your engraver to show you Shaded Antique Roman . . . the letters are tall and graceful and youthful, and I think your daughter will like this type of engraving. And script, less expensive, is always in excellent taste.

Paine Bridal May 27

By BETTY ALDEN

THE MARRIAGE of Barbara Ann Paine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon Paine, and Ensign Edwin B. Laughlin, 2d, USNR, whose engagement was announced last week, has been set for next Saturday in Leslie Lindsey Chapel.

The pretty bride-to-be, who grew up in a house in Weston surrounded by colorful gardens, always had her heart set on an outdoor wedding reception. And she's not to be disappointed even though her parents are duration apartment dwellers.

Charles River sq., a unique city courtyard in front of the Paine's Beacon Hill apartment, is to be transformed with gay awnings and flowers into a picturesque setting where the bride and groom will receive. Barbara Ann's childhood friend, Elsie Hansel of Cranford, N. J., will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids Mrs. David Lutkin, Mrs. Joseph Wallace, Sally Woolworth and Suzanne Bradford.

Member of the Vincent Club and Junior League, the patriotic Barbara Ann has been holding down a unique job for a debutante —driving a "chisel" (small tractor) at the Army Base. Her husband, son of Mr. Edwin Laughlin of Loudonville, N. Y., graduated from Brown in '42. Since he is on active duty they have no immediate plans for setting up housekeeping.

★ ★ ★

AT THE Junior League's annual luncheon today Patricia Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., of West Newton, was elected president. She succeeds Dorothy Rackemann who retires after three terms to become director of region 1, representing all the leagues in New England, Quebec and Nova Scotia.

Patty's running mates are the newly elected Mrs. Norman Holman (Deborah Sprague), Mrs. Robert Hurlburt, vice-presidents; Mrs. George A. Parson, treasurer; Mrs. Gilbert Roddy and Mrs. Herbert Motley, secretary and assistant sec.

The new prexy of this exclusive organization has proved her ability through a number of years of executive work at the League and the charitable organizations affiliated with its volunteer program.

Among those casting their ballots at the luncheon were Mrs. George Bemis, Mrs. Charles Higginson, Mrs. C. Campbell Patterson, Jr., Mrs. Edward W. Grew, Jr., Mrs. Rutherford Bingham, Mrs. Stanton Loring, Mrs. Ames Howlett, Martha Henderson, Marian Minot, Mary Elizabeth Clarke.

WHEN SUSAN BAKER of Marlborough st., and Neil S. MacKenna of Wayland, former Hub newspaperman, were married Saturday at Ft. Benning, the bride's mother, Mrs. Royce Baker, was matron of honor and Nicholas Madeira of Chestnut Hill, best man. The latter, like the groom, is an Army ASTP trainee. Susan wore a lime green dress and a coronet of white southern flowers tied with dark blue ribbon.

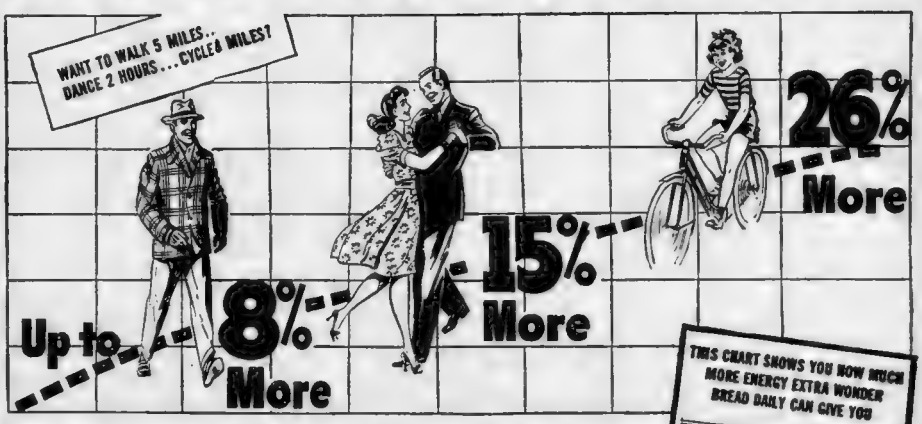
How to Step Up ENERGY



How This Energy-Charged Wonder Bread Can Give You All The Extra Energy You Want

Contains Vitamins of the B Complex and Iron Your Body Needs To Help Get All The Energy Out of It

As you know, energy comes only from the food you eat. Thus, to get more energy—eat more energy food.

To get energy out of food, Nature must have the help of Vitamins B_1 and B_2 and Iron.

The two vitamins help to oxidize the food in the cells to get the energy out of it. The Iron in your blood acts to bring the oxygen to the cells.

Study the chart. Then eat the extra number of slices of energy-charged Wonder Bread every day to get the extra amount of energy you want.

. . . GET VITAMINS, IRON

When you eat energy-charged Wonder Bread you know it contains Vitamins B_1 and B_2 and Iron which you know are necessary to help Nature transform it into energy properly.

And only Wonder Bread is sold under $1,000 guarantee of continual tests of Vitamin B_1 content.

Only WONDER BREAD Makes This $1,000 Vitamin B_1 Guarantee

Regular laboratory tests of typical loaves of Wonder Wheat Bread show an average Vitamin B_1 content substantially in excess of the minimum requirements as recommended for bread by the Federal Food and Drug Administration.

We will pay $1,000 to any charitable organization named by the citizen of the United States first to disprove the above statement.

Continental Baking Co., Inc.

DOUBLY FRESH

In addition, energy-charged Wonder Bread is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it, fresh when you eat it.

Because Wonder Bread is slo-baked—15% longer than many ordinary kinds for lasting freshness.

For extra energy, eat extra slices of energy-charged Wonder Bread every day. Serve your husband and children extra Wonder Bread, too.

Get Wonder Bread fresh from your grocer today. You'll be glad you did.

THIS CHART SHOWS YOU HOW MUCH MORE ENERGY EXTRA WONDER BREAD DAILY CAN GIVE YOU

Protect the Evidence

HERE IS SOMETHING for Congress to think about—and to think about now!

Representative Martin Dies will not return to his seat.

The enemies of the Dies Committee hope that it will be dissolved.

In its files at Washington, and in its offices throughout the country, the Dies Committee has accumulated a vast and valuable collection of records on subversion.

Perhaps the chief reason why some of the Dies Committee's enemies long for its extinction is because of what its records contain about them.

Let them get the Committee itself abolished and the next effort will be to have its files suppressed as sources of public or official information.

This might be accomplished by sequestering the files permanently or by getting them destroyed.

However, the Dies Committee is not the only Federal agency that has been doing police work for Americanism.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has voluminous records on dangerous groups, activities and individuals.

To protect their ranks against infiltration and the nation against espionage, both the Army and the Navy have alert and vigorous intelligence services, which also possess documented reference files.

And, with the Dies Committee under attack by militant Left-Wing influences, the Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance reports that the Navy Department is being required to terminate its division devoted to investigation of Communists and Communist organizations.

Furthermore, the same news agency asserts, the Navy has actually reinstated, WITH BACK PAY, Communists who had been dismissed—with the sanction of Congress—from jobs as radio operators on ships or in "key" shipyards.

Incidentally, it is also alleged, the act of Congress to purge the ship-radio service of Communists was sponsored by Admiral Stanford C. Hooper, formerly in charge of the Naval Radio Service, who was himself retired after a clash with the Federal Communications Comsion and who has not been recalled to the colors.

The files accumulated in these various offices are PUBLIC PROPERTY. They should not be destroyed or demobilized, nor allowed by any chance to fall into the wrong hands.

Congress could very well continue the Dies Committee, or its equivalent, as one of its own permanent agencies, making it the custodian of existing and future records on organizations and individuals whose activities, while not perhaps liable to penalties under the criminal laws, may nonetheless be inimical to the peace and security of the Republic.

Tax Rates Should Decline

COMMISSIONER LONG has announced that 48 Massachusetts municipalities have reduced their tax rates this year.

Mr. Long further reveals that increases have been made in the rates of 43 cities and towns and that the same rate as 1943 prevails in 109 municipalities.

How long must the people wait for all cities and towns to lighten the burden on real estate owners?

With relief expenditures greatly reduced and practically no money being spent for new construction, practically every municipality should be able to reduce its tax rate at this time.

A rising rate is generally proof that something is radically wrong in a local government, and residents who hope to keep their homes and lands should strive mightily to find and correct it.

Washington Scene . .

(Distributed by King Features Synd., Inc. Reproduction in Whole or in Part Strictly Prohibited).

WASHINGTON, May 23—The horrid suggestion that one of Britannia's austere brass hats would eat his pie with a knife was put forth the other day by Admiral Ernest J. King—and I, for one, am deeply shocked by it.

Admiral King, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, does not seem to be the kind of a man who would go around ribbing our British allies, so I can only assume he has inside information on British eating habits.

The Admiral was a guest at a farewell dinner given by the National Press Club for Capt. Leland P. Lovette, retiring head of Navy Public Relations. Capt. Lovette is about to go forth to battle, possibly to determine if there is anything to the gag about the pen being mightier than the sword.

Just before the dinner got started the temporary waiters got word—by the mysterious waiters' grapevine—that better jobs for the evening were to be had at the Mayflower, so they walked out almost in a body.

Club members tried to fill the breach, but it seems newspapermen are not so smart as waiters.

Adm. King got two forks, but most of the guests got only one. The admiral, however, turned out to be a conserving type—after eating his fish he retained the same fork for the pie.

Two seats distant from the admiral was Commodore A. W. Clarke, British navy chief of staff here. Commodore Clarke had only one fork—and let it get away from him.

Seeing the commodore's plight, his aide, Comdr. Kenneth Downey, leaned across and whispered to Adm. King:

"Pardon me, admiral, but could you lend me your other fork so my commander can eat his pie?"

Adm. King graciously surrendered his spare weapon in the interests of hands-across-the-sea. Then he noted that Downey also was forkless. With a courtly gesture he picked up his knife and handed it to the startled Britisher, saying:

"Here! You can eat your pie, too!"

IF I AM going to fall for a press agent stunt, I am going to fall for it good, and no half-way measures. Consequently I have just turned down an invitation to be official Washington escort to "America's Most Beautiful Legs."

The invitation was extended by a public relations magnate whose name I am not going to mention because he misspelled my name, anyway, making it Dixson.

Neither am I going to mention the name of the young lady to whom the legs are attached.

If she will guarantee to kick the press agent who thinks my name is Dixson, I might reconsider. But, judging by the kind of blurb he sent me, there must be thousands fighting for the chance to give him a solid hoofing.

This leggy beauty, according to the blurb, wishes to come to Washington and parade her limbs before the heads of government. The mere assumption that these executives do not have sufficient distraction as it is, is disturbing.

Furthermore, the blathering press agent has been good enough to imply that I spend practically all my time ogling legs, and I wonder who has been snitching.

By way of emphasizing that the legs of his victim—er, client—are super-gorgeous he includes the measurements:

Ankle, 8½ inches; calf, 12¼ inches; thigh, 19½ inches.

The measurements mean nothing to me because I have never gone after a dame with a tape measure in my life. Does anybody in the crowd know anything about it?

TO A GROPING, confused columnist, whose days are filled with doubts as to what sort of stuff he should write, and how he should write it, has come a wonderful letter. It is from Mrs. Ida H. Sorrick of Durant ave., Berkeley, Cal., and reads:

"Dear Mr. Dixon: I wish I were able to tell you in words what a blessing you are to those of us who stand in constant fear of a telegram, or other bad news, from the fighting front.

"Your column is a scream—we laugh until the tears almost blot out the words before our eyes. How we all need something to take our minds off the invasion—which seems to be so near at hand, and so heart-breaking to many."

Thank you, Mrs. Sorrick, and God bless you for those words.

The paths we used to walk are desolate:
A ghostly moon stalks through a stark dead sky;
The stars, once vital, grim, inanimate;
And every breeze emits a tragic sigh.
Night holds no sweet enchantment now for me:
My days are but an aching span of time,
Harassed and haunted by the memory
Of blighted dreams, fantastic but sublime.
Yet I'll be brave for my vast loneliness
Is petty to the horrors and the fears
That menace all your days: the wretchedness
That lengthens frightful hours into years
Have courage, dear, I'll keep our rendezvous
Till God restores my splendid dreams and you.

—MARTIN F. OWENS.

LOUIS P. O'CONNELL, brilliant Chicago barrister, who has never lost a case, nearly came to the end of his career in New York recently. He slipped in a bathtub in a hotel and narrowly escaped cracking his valuable skull beyond repair. One of the first of the campaigns to be resumed after the war by this department will be that for non-slippable bathtubs.

PLEASE NOTE: Why is it that "Jeannie," one of the best light comedy films of all time, has been shown only in the smaller theaters? Don't miss this picture, even if you have to rent a lantern to find the theater it is playing in . . . Style expert says "Lillian Russell wore the first bustle." Maybe so. But the same expert says "Maid Marion wore the first wimple." That can't be, as the wimple is mentioned in the Bible . . . Film stars get a priority on nylon stockings. The U. S. Government considers the films a morale builder and so the cinema cuties are favored as to hosiery. However, the Hollywoodians can only wear the Nylons on the set. They must return them to the wardrobe mistress, who puts them in a glass jar in a refrigerator to keep them looking bright and snappy.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: Let's get straightened out on who said what. It was Arnold Daly and nobody else who observed: "Golf is like a love affair; if you don't take it seriously it's no fun; if you do take it seriously it breaks your heart" . . . Now take your baby's birthday. On that day you should have moving pictures taken of the infant. Also a recording of his or her voice. Save a newspaper of each birthday date, so in later years your descendant can get an idea of what was happening as his life went on.

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS: Q—Never mind what you had for breakfast. What did you have for lunch today? A—A large dish of blackberries with cream, a No. 711 sandwich (plain ham, no pickles, potato chips, etc.) and coffee. Very tasty. Q—Are you really from Brooklyn, or are you kidding? A—Everything I say about Brooklyn comes from the heart. It was the scene of my boyhood. I am a graduate of good old Public School No. 2 on 47th st., Brooklyn, and also of the Commercial High School of that city.

BRIEFLY: Claims J. Roger Darling: "When a race horse breaks his leg he is usually destroyed. Not that his leg cannot be mended. It is because the sling in which the horse's body would have to be suspended while the broken bone joined so restricts the animal's lungs that pneumonia is practically positive." (NOTE: Seems about time veterinarians discovered a more practical way to treat a horse's broken leg.—EVD) . . . Linda Darnell is not the only one who has a deodorized skunk for a pet. A Baltimore subscriber informs me she has one, too, and adds: "He's a cute little fellow. I put him on a leash every evening and take him for a walk."

ASIDES: Pvt. Lou Carus, who spends his furloughs autograph hunting, states female film stars usually sign their professional names regardless of their marital status, but when he asked Carole Landis for her autograph she signed "Carole Landis Wallace."

HOLLYWOOD, May 23—Father Flanagan's "Boys Town" was a big moneymaker. So it is no surprise to hear that M-G-M has bought the rights to film a movie around the idea of "Boys Ranch," the farm near Amarillo, Tex., where delinquent boys are trained and rehabilitated.

Arleen Whelan

The idea is similar to Father Flanagan's wonderful institution that has done so much to put youngsters on the right road in life. "Boys Ranch," however, is operated by a group of Texas business men who believe the great outdoors is the best and happiest place for boys who need spiritual as well as physical care.

The "Ranch" has been described in national magazines, thereby giving Metro a running jump in popular interest. Jackie Jenkins, who looks like an angel (and ain't), gets a top role.

WHAT SERGT. YORK was to World War I "Commando Kelly" is to World War II. He's the boy who, single handed, killed 47 Nazis in the early part of the Italian campaign. That figure is officially credited to him, though the unofficial guess is that his mark is closer to 150. Kelly, whose full name is Charles ("Chuck") Kelly, is the outstanding Infantry hero of the war, and when Twentieth brings his exploits to the screen they plan to do well by him. There was a rumor that Jimmy Dunn would get the part after "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," but Michael O'Shea gets it.

ARLEEN WHELAN bows out of "Doughgirls" early in June to head for the movies again, and with her comes her pal from the same show, Arlene Francis. The girls are very close friends. In fact, it was Arlene Francis and her husband, Neil Agnew, who introduced Arleen Whelan to Hugh Owen on a "blind date." The young couples are practically inseparable. Recently, when Agnew switched from the Paramount Eastern office to David Selznick, his friend Owen went along as general sales manager.

I HAVE HEARD of a curious case of the first gas casualty on the home front in this war. The victim is Donald O'Connor, youthful motion picture actor. He was very sick and the doctors for a long time couldn't decide what was the matter with him. Tests proved he was suffering from carbon monoxide poisoning.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD COLLECTED AT RANDOM: Ann Sothern and Lt. Robert Sterling are closing a deal for the Danny Danker house. They want a place with a nursery for their expected baby! Mrs. Greg Bautzer, a picture in a big pink hat, dining with her stepfather, Steve Brody, and the Alan Mowbrays; saw Ralph Bellamy by his lonesome. Mrs. Bellamy is in Reno for the usual reason and will make their separation official in six weeks.

MARY AND BILL GARGAN are due today from the East. Although he had several stage plays offered him, he decided to come to Hollywood; K. T. Stevens may decide to go into Eastern stock before she makes "The Kincaids" ("The Land Is Bright") for her father, Sam Wood; Bonita Granville was on the M-G-M lot a few days ago to discuss her next picture with them. She'll do two at this studio; Virginia O'Brien is singing her notes in high, on account of her husband, Kirk Alyn, in the Merchant Marine, is home on leave; Dashiell Hammet ("Thin Man" author) is in Alaska, entertaining the boys and making a great hit; Carole Landis has been down with flu near Del Monte, where she has been on location; the Janet Michaels-George Brent romance has gone pfft! Now it's pretty June Millard who is being seen with him; Jean Gary, dancing partner of Lee Dixon in "Oklahoma," was married here Monday to Walter Vent of Cincinnati.

NEW YORK, May 23—Is there anything to the rumor that the Milton Berles (Joyce Matthews) are sharing a happy secret? . . . Aren't Elaine Barrie Barrymore and Norman Jane very warm for May—and even very warm for Elaine? . . . Do you know that even though she has legal custody of their baby Lois Andrews lets little Jerrilyn live with Georgie Jessel in his California house? . . . Do you know that Chico ("Slap Happy") Marx directs his serious chatter exclusively to Mary Dees, the former cinema actress? . . . Is it true that, although Alex D'Arcy dates plenty of pretties, he still can't forget Arleen Whelan—and the torch he totes for her is terrific? . . . Is it true Martha Raye is planning to have her baby (or babies) at a Chicago hospital? . . . Are Fred Waring and his cigarette sponsor really divorcing after all these years?

HAVE YOU SEEN Joan Edwards wearing the town's most expensive sweater — made of stone marten, of all things? . . . Can you imagine why Emily Jewell, the eyeful who used to be Al Jolson's big moment, is going to college to study journalism? . . . Have you heard the international set gossiping about the big story that's supposed to be breaking in Greece right now—only you can't print that? . . . Is Mayor LaGuardia about to lash out against that delicious vice, gin rummy? . . .

★ ★ ★

ISN'T IT AMUSING that Jerry Wald's contract with the Paramount Theater for next month contains a stipulation—at his request—that he be permitted to use an entrance other than the stage door, so he won't have to run the autograph hounds' gantlet? . . . Is Gypsy Rose Lee facing a big suit initiated by another writer over "The G-String Murder Case"? . . . Do you know that artist Henry Major, who does those wonderful sketches of celebrities, is having an exhibition of oil paintings—which you shouldn't miss—at The Durand-Ruel Galleries? . . . Is Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, going to be a candidate for the Senate from the State of Washington? . . . Isn't Maria Montez going overseas to join her husband Pierre Aumont in London? . . .

DO YOU KNOW that all the proceeds from Bob Hope's forthcoming book, "I Never Left Home," will go to Army and Navy Relief? . . . Isn't Orville Dull, the Hollywood producer, a fearless fellow not to change his name? . . . Have you heard about Actress Lya Lys grabbing all kinds of blue ribbons at the week-end dog shows, where she exhibits her prize Afghans? . . .

Star Shine By Sidney Skolsky

HOLLYWOOD, May 23—You really don't know what's going on with pictures in the small towns until you read what the exhibitors have to say in the Motion Picture Herald. Here, for example, is a town which saw a Technicolor picture and got very excited about it because—well, let Exhibitor Andrew Mayeshiba of Heart Mountain, Wyo., tell about it in his review of "Happy Go Lucky": "This is the first Technicolor feature I have shown and it made a hit with all my patrons. Eddie Bracken and Betty Hutton produced many a laugh from my customers . . ." Whether you realize it or not, there are still towns in this country that haven't seen a Technicolor picture yet.

Mentioning laughs from Bracken and Hutton, the small town reviews of "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek" are coming in, and Exhibitor B. R. Johnson of Nipawin, Sask., Canada, writes: "Here's a honey of a comedy. It's a bit risque in spots, but it pleased my patrons. This picture should be good for any location."

There was a protest by the Theater Guild that the picture "In Old Oklahoma" would be confused with their musical "Oklahoma," and now Exhibitor Melville Banner of Granite, Okla., has this to say about the picture: "Here's a small town natural. While some got this mixed up with the stage play of about the same title, they seemed to like the picture."

★ ★ ★

FRANKIE SINATRA may be a hero to the bobby socks, but the small town exhibitors and their patrons don't wear bobby socks. Exhibitor J. D. Leger of Lecompte, La., writes about "Higher and Higher":

"I can't say much for this feature and if Sinatra has so many fans as they say they aren't in this town. However, it is a pretty good picture and will do average business, but I didn't receive many comments on it one way or the other."

Then Exhibitor W. C. Pullin of Columbus, O., writes about the same picture: "If you haven't bought this feature, then don't do it. The few people that did come to see it went out so mad I had to hide to keep away from them."

George Holland

Boston After Dark

AN OBSERVING person who signs herself "Justa Mother" (and uses the same typewriter from which come dispatches written by Joseph Flynn, a public relations counsellor) writes as follows: "Have you noticed that the lithographs and tack cards, also the circulars advertising that obstetrical farce, '3 Is a Family,' all show a baby boy? Somebody should tell producer John Golden that all the babies in the play are girls. I think gender is important, even on lithographs, don't you?" . . . We submit the question as a candidate for the silliest of the month.

★ ★ ★

BUT IN EVENT THAT Press-agent Flynn, who happens to work for Mr. Golden and "3 Is a Family," is using the nom de plume of "Justa Mother," it seems moot to mention that "3 Is a Family" is playing at the Colonial Theater, and that matinees are on Wednesdays and Saturdays . . . (You can brush off Mr. Flynn, a not-too-importunate fellow, with one lead paragraph a show—for most of his shows . . . But this so-called "obstetrical farce" of "Justa Mother's" seems to be here for a run).

WHAT'S THE DEEP SILENCE from the Ritz-Carlton? . . . This week was to have been the week of the opening of the Roof . . . Miss Gloria Young of Mattapan submits a title for the Shangri-La cocktail lounge, which, for more than a week now has been christened . . . The Myles Standish is opening a "smart new cocktail lounge" on May 30, and Manager Gil Johnson, as far as we know, has not yet decided upon a name . . . Miss Young's suggestion is "The Rhum-bar." The most appreciated honor yet paid School-committeeman Michael J. Ward in his spirited campaign for sheriff of Suffolk County was his choice by the Mass. Catholic Order of Foresters, he says, as principal speaker at the opening of the M. C. O. F.'s annual convention at the New Ocean House, Swampscott . . . Mayor Tobin was a speaker, also . . . The Tobin-Hurley-Kelly contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination is getting off on a harsh note, sounded by the practiced Mr. Kelly . . . Speaking of Mr. Kelly, the former lieutenant-governor (in answer to questions in the mail which we are answering belatedly) really was the fellow in the gob's uniform who marched in the parade of the Coast Guard Reserve

BOSTON MEMBERS of the Admirals Club, an adjunct of American Airlines, may be interested in learning that the clubhouse suite at LaGuardia Field is now open . . . The announcement, couched in poetry, says: "And I must tell you, out of the blue, behind the bar in multitude as rye or Scotch to suit your mood!" . . . What do they mean—"in multitude"? . . . Does an admiral start seeing things as soon as he "drops in out of the blue?" . . . Or perhaps the poet (signed as "The Skipper") meant "in plenitude." . . . Neil Phillips is leading the Satire Gardens' three-piece unit, with a violin and guitar as his accomplices in playing the first dance music the Fensgate's patrons have ever enjoyed . . . Only three years ago, the hotel on the Charles not only had no liquor license, but smoking was forbidden in the dining-room.

★ ★ ★

BABE RUBENSTEIN'S marvellous announcing and calling of the races makes the daily trek to Suffolk Downs a real pleasure for the inveterate horse-player and the initiate alike . . . If the Babe isn't the best race-caller in the country, who—we ask you—is? . . . If the New York tracks had the acumen which their vaunted 3-million-dollar handles would indicate, they would have snatched Mr. Rubenstein away from the New England circuit long ago.

Corn's Green . . . But Not Ethel

By PEGGY DOYLE

Ethel Barrymore's mellowed English schoolmarm who uncarths a rich vein of literary genius in an untutored group of young Welsh coal-miners is here again, clinching beyond shadow of doubt her own celebrated contention . . . "that's all, there isn't any more."

Last night at the Wilbur Theater, where Miss Barrymore opened a two-week engagement to end the non-stop, four-season engagement of Emlyn Williams' play, "The Corn Is Green," the customers were entranced by the star's luminous playing.

Since Nov. 14, 1940, when the play originally opened in Baltimore, Miss Barrymore and her supporting company have been shattering attendance records here, there and everywhere in the course of an endurance run that has included two transcontinental tours. And yet last night's performance was as compelling and fresh as when Boston first saw the production four years ago.

★ ★ ★

There is something magical about the unceasing vitality and heart of Miss Barrymore's gallant Miss Moffat, M. A., who comes close to perfection as performances go. Through the years and extending back to the 1890's, the late John Drew's famous niece has been peopling an extensive gallery with her footlights masterpieces and few surpass her current portrait in grease paint.

Only recently she has been making a picture in Hollywood—her first—with Cary Grant, which you'll soon be seeing. It won't be long now before preparations are ready for a new Broadway production. Meanwhile her Miss Moffat will be something to remember Miss Barrymore by for now and for endless time to come.

An interesting discovery of the present production of the Emlyn Williams' play is Dorothy Hinkley's natural playing of the come-hither Betty Watty, who's not a bad girl and not a good girl, either. Presented in a too stylized fashion in the original production, Miss Hinkley's Betty is considerably more credible.

Eva Leonard-Boyne's Mrs. Watty, reformed kleptomaniac and newly promoted sergeant-major in the woman's "corpse", is a richly comic characterization and the young Morgan Evans of Bert Kalmar, Jr., is a standout. Jane Van Duser's Miss Ronberry, spinster, is a nicely conceived blend of sentimentality, wishful thinking, coquetry and hope.

Some Welsh singing, under Emlyn Williams' expert direction; Howard Bay's lived-in, book-lined setting and Ernest Schrapps' costumes including Miss Barrymore's rakish skimmer and her sway-back skirts, contribute much to the authenticity of the Wales locale. Nor is Herman Shumlin's knowing direction to be overlooked in a production boasting the kohnnoor performance of the season.

JENNIFER JONES' performance in the title role of "The Song of Bernadette" won her the Academy Award. She is shown here with Anne Revere, who gives a notable portrayal as her mother. Film continues to bring capacity audiences into the Majestic.

It's 'Tobacco Road' Again

For the fifth time in 10 years "Tobacco Road," long-run king of the stage, is here again to shock and to entertain.

Everybody knows by this time about Jack Kirkland's freak play of the Georgia "crackers." This Plymouth shows again the dusty panorama of Jeeter Lester's ramshackle farm. And the players, headed by John Barton, who has done the same thing for more than 3000 times, tell again of a reprehensible poverty in "the richest country in the world."

If the story of these 48 hours in the squalid lives of the white-trash sharecroppers has become too familiar to take seriously in the theater, the acting troupe has another "out"—they can play it for laughs!

Even so, the stage counterfeits of Jeeter, Dude, Ellie May and the old Grandma who creeps about in dreadful silence are each and all striking and realistic reminders of the hideousness of poverty wherever found—and that we'd all better do something about it if the face of the world is to be kept straight.

Besides Mr. Barton the Plymouth company includes Sara Perry, Vinnie Phillips, Jane McCloud and Kirk Lucas. L. G.

Ickes Tightens Anthracite Ban

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Solid Fuels Administrator Ickes announced today that effective June 1, retail dealers outside New England and Middle Atlantic States are forbidden to deliver anthracite or eastern coke to consumers whose equipment permits the use of high volatile bituminous coal.

Principal changes affecting small consumers are:

Only purchasers of one-quarter ton or less of the two fuels in bags containing 100 pounds or less are exempt from making consumer declarations.

Summer cottages and summer hotels using the fuels between May 1 and Oct. 1 may obtain at any time during that period seven-eighths of their annual requirements instead of the 50 per cent formerly allowed.

Lucky M. P.

ON THE ANZIO BEACHHEAD, May 23 (AP)—Military Policeman R. Coffey of Lima, Ohio, was sleeping when a 170-millimeter (approximately 6⅔ inches in diameter) shell hit his Anzio billet.

The shell dropped through three floors, grazed Coffey's head and sent him spinning, but failed to explode.

Today he is back at work with two stitches in his scalp.

Police Sergeant On Suspension

Sergt. Joseph W. McLeary of the Brighton station today was under a 30-day suspension without pay, imposed by Police Commr. Thomas F. Sullivan after the officer had been found innocent by a trial board on charges of neglect of duty.

A board comprising Capts. Frank McNabb, Louis DiSessa and Leo Masuret had recommended dismissal of a complaint that McLeary had failed to find a youthful burglar hiding in a Brighton store following a reported break.

In reversing the board's decision, Sullivan pointed out that three patrolmen in McLeary's detail had been punished and ruled that the sergeant must suffer the same fate.

Fortunes

sowing suffering with tidings of ill omen.

Among her most faithful customers, she told Pauline Warren and me after we mounted the dark stairs to her rooms, are wives, sweethearts, and mothers of servicemen, who come to her for news of their boys in khaki and Navy blue. And as she told us this, her eyes already had marked the service insignia we wore.

I SEE YOUR HUSBAND

"I can see your husband at some Navy base somewhere, and it seems to me he's in England," she hazarded, as she dealt the cards for my fortune.

"He's worried about what he's going to say to you, because I can see this other girl chasing him. She is a blonde girl, a good deal lighter than you are, and she's crazy for him.

"He's smart, but he's not smart enough to keep away from her. She keeps chasing him, and every time he goes into a port, in England, or Scotland, or Ireland, or anywhere around there, I can see her meeting him.

"She asks him is he married, and he says 'yes.' Then she asks do you have any children, and he says 'no.' That way she thinks it's all fair, just because there aren't any children," the medium declared.

I gulped a little, and avoided Pauline's eyes, choking back the giggle which rose in my throat. For she knew, and I knew, that not only is my strictly 4-F husband on the Boston side of the Atlantic, but that our most expensive assets are our two sturdy youngsters.

The soothsayer warmed to her work. Shifting her mammoth bulk on a creaking kitchen chair, she continued:

HE STILL LOVES OU

"He still loves you, but she's right there on the spot, and he's kind of likes her, too. He's a man who likes to have a good time, and he is kind of spoiled, and he likes the idea of this pretty girl chasing him all over everywhere."

"There isn't any chance that he might ask for a divorce, is there?" I asked breathlessly.

"Well, I'll see," she hemmed and hawed. Her agile fingers flew as she riffled the deck and "made a star" with the cards. This was her own, individual trick, unmatched by the other card-readers we visited.

Putting the card for the person you wonder about in the center, the Lawrence woman builds a star of cards around it. When turned over, the star supposedly reveals what you want to know.

"Here is her card," she said, pointing at the star, "And here is his. Here are the divorce cards, and hers is crowned with victory. I think that means she is talking to him, talking all the time, trying to get him to divorce you. And it looks like he still loves you, but she's right there and he's listening to her, and she will probably get her way."

At that I felt very badly because my imaginary husband was tossing me aside like a chewing-gum wrapper. When the psychic saw my sorrow, she hedged a little.

"Let me make a star for you and make sure," she suggested, arranging the cards. "Here it shows that there's going to be a talk about a divorce, but there won't be one unless you want it," she salved my pride.

THE NEW ANGLE

The next batch of cards revealed a new angle.

"I can see that you've been staying pretty close to home, but that now you're going to start having some fun yourself."

"I might as well," I pouted. "If he's off there in England having a good time, I might as well have one, too."

"That's the idea!" she cried "You go out a little, honey, and you'll feel better. Now, you're going to get a letter from him, for sure, right away. And he'll get home for a short time, before you expect it. When you can see him, and talk things out, everything will be better. And he won't get any divorce unless you want it."

The cards dealt by this genial woman showed a different sort of heartbreak for Pauline Warren, but the heartbreak was there, nevertheless.

COLLECT THE INSURANCE

When Pauline asked whether she should divorce her husband in service (a fictitious character, of course), to wed an equally fictitious beau here at home, the woman advised:

"Your husband is dead. Go ahead and collect his $10,000 insurance and marry the other man who loves you. You don't need to bother with a divorce."

Pauline said, "But, perhaps my husband isn't dead. Perhaps he's just a prisoner. I would hate to think he might be dead."

"If he isn't dead now," the medium answered, "he soon will be."

Pauline's second mate will heap her with success and riches, the reader said. "This other man loves you much more than your husband did. He is a good man, with a lot of money. You'll be very happy married together," she promised, her plump fingers weaving a star of cards.

Only the service stars, blue and gold, shining through the window glass of hundreds of homes, have seen the sorrow this fortune teller has sowed through her stars of cards to the women waiting behind those windows for brave men and true.

Another of this interesting series will appear in the Boston American tomorrow. Don't fail to read it.

THE PRIME OF LIFE CAN BE PROLONGED

Dr. Henry G. Sherman Says:

"A generous supply of Calcium results in better development of the young, a higher form of adult health, and a longer lease of what we may call the prime of life—the period between maturity and old age."

FOOD RATIONING MAY NOT SUPPLY SUFFICIENT CALCIUM SAYS CLAUDE WICKARD, U. S. Secretary of Agriculture.

Calcium is more often deficient in the diet than any other mineral. Calcium deficiency is a form of malnutrition that may be the cause of acidity, nervousness, fatigue, weakened heart, muscles and other effects which hasten the onset of "OLD AGE" and shorten the "PRIME OF LIFE."

AM I NERVOUS?

Sleeplessness with ragged, jagged nerves, may be due to a calcium deficiency which upsets the parathyroid glands causing intense sensitivity of the whole nervous system.

DO I TIRE EASILY?

A calcium starved body tires easily. A calcium deficiency may cause an upset nerve system, less strength, energy and vitality. No person can be normal without a sufficient supply of calcium.

AM I OLD AT 40?

Old at 40, evidences of early aging, perhaps at 50 or 60, may be due to calcium deficiency. Calcium is needed, in adequate amount, in the repair and growth of body organs, tissues, cells. If your health is impaired, if you are run down, tired, old at 40 and nervous because you do not get enough Calcium or Phosphorus or Vitamin D or Vitamin B1 add KAL to your diet. See how much better you feel after KAL helps to build up, then maintain a normal Calcium-Phosphorus balance and help overcome the ill effects of a deficiency of the vital elements KAL so richly supplies.

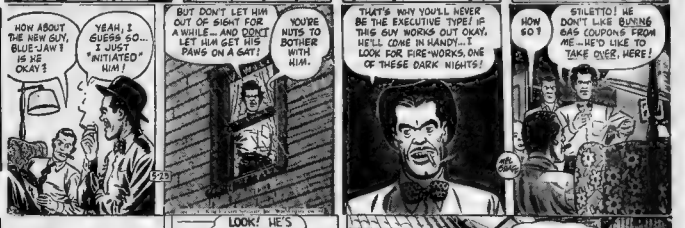
POPEYE

THE PHANTOM

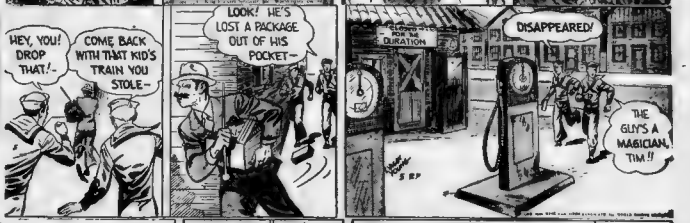
WHERE'D YOU GET THAT PHANTOM MARK, JROONER?
COPIED FROM A GUY'S JAW YEARS AGO-A GUY THE PHANTOM LEFT BEHIND.
YOU KNOW, WAXY, I LIKE NICE, SOFT RACKETS.
SURE, CROONER, THAT'S YOU ALL OVER.
CHEE! A RING WITH A SKULL ON IT! WHERE'D YOU GET THAT?
HAD IT MADE.
WHAT'S THE SOFT RACKET, CROONER? I DON'T GET IT!
YOU WILL, WAXY, YOU WILL!

SECRET AGENT



HOW ABOUT THE NEW GUY, BLUE-JAW? IS HE OKAY?
YEAH, I GUESS SO... I JUST "INITIATED" HIM!
BUT DON'T LET HIM OUT OF SIGHT FOR A WHILE—AND DON'T LET HIM GET HIS PAWS ON A GAT!
YOU'RE NUTS TO BOTHER WITH HIM.
THAT'S WAY YOU'LL NEVER BE THE EXECUTIVE TYPE! IF THIS GUY WORKS OUT OKAY, HE'LL COME IN HANDY...I LOOK FOR FIRE-WORKS ONE OF THESE DARK NIGHTS!
HOW SO?
STILETTO! HE DON'T LIKE BURNING GAS COUPONS FROM ME—HE'D LIKE TO TAKE OVER, HERE!

TIM TYLER



HEY, YOU! DROP THAT!-
COME BACK WITH THAT KID'S TRAIN YOU STOLE-
LOOK! HE'S LOST A PACKAGE OUT OF HIS POCKET—DISAPPEARED!
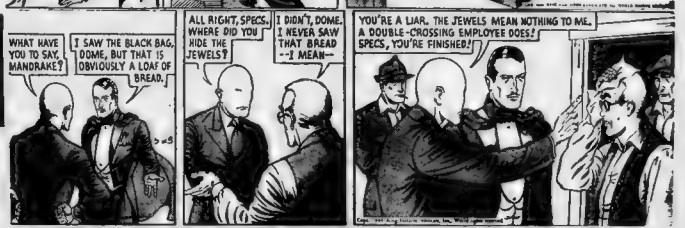
THE GUY'S A MAGICIAN, TIM!!

MANDRAKE



WHAT HAVE YOU TO SAY, MANDRAKE?
I SAW THE BLACK BAG, DOME, BUT THAT IS OBVIOUSLY A LOAF OF BREAD.
ALL RIGHT, SPECS. WHERE DID YOU HIDE THE JEWELS?
I DIDN'T, DOME. I NEVER SAW THAT BREAD --I MEAN--
YOU'RE A LIAR. THE JEWELS MEAN NOTHING TO ME. A DOUBLE-CROSSING EMPLOYEE DOES! SPECS, YOU'RE FINISHED!

JVA to Hunt Harmonicas

"Find harmonicas for our servicemen."

This is the order being issued to all Junior Victory Army members by corps commanders in response to the appeal of Mrs. Dorothy D. Beggs, a director of the Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy, Inc., affiliate of the USO here.

Contribution of these musical instruments will do much to please soldiers and sailors at Army camps, hospitals, Navy bases and recreation centers, she says.

Harmonicas can no longer be purchased as their makers have turned over their facilities to war production and the Citizens' Committee needs help in supplying the constant demand.

All commanders of JVA corps have been urged to have their members make house-to-house canvasses for all discarded instruments in good condition. The harmonicas should be taken or sent to the committee's headquarters at 13 Commonwealth ave., Boston.

To join the JVA, send your name, age and full address to Junior Victory Army, Box 228, Boston, Mass. If, in addition to enlistment, you want the JVA insignia pin and membership card, enclose a 10-cent coin well wrapped in your letter.

Read the next JVA story in Wednesday's Daily Record.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth slip, and embarrass you at times? Don't be worried and ashamed any longer. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks plate odor (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

Get a salary, car or furniture loan at Household Finance. We require no endorsers or guarantors. A $100 loan may be repaid in 12 monthly instalments of $10.07 each or in 6 monthly instalments of $18.48. The quicker you repay the lower the cost.

Loans of $300 and less are made under state supervision. Payments on loans of $300 or less include charges at Household's rate of 3% per month on that part of a balance not exceeding $100, and 2% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $100. Loans above $300 to $1000 are made at the low rate of 1½% per month on unpaid balances.

Little Beans to Return To Races; Horse Now Fit

By JACK CONWAY

RACING IN THE rain at Suffolk Downs . . . "Oh, Shucks," from the 15,000 fans who poured $822,922 into the mutuels, "what do we care about the rain as long as we get a few winners!" . . . There was a hot tip on the winning $286 combination of Witchwater and Ladies First, but only 122 persons played these two horses . . . Both winners were first time starters . . . The stables at Suffolk Downs are loaded with thoroughbreds who have not raced and about which little is known . . . Look out for long shots!

Just when the big crowd was getting ready for more startling upsets and payoffs that would look like telephone numbers Chain Miss, Dave Wilson's top choice; Mrs. Weston W. Adams' Cavatorta, Undulator and Patriotism, all favorites, came down in front.

Harry Pratt

It was Cavatorta's first race since a win at Pimlico . . . Jockey Harry Pratt was up on the winner . . . Even 120 pounds failed to stop Mrs. Adams' horse . . . It looks as if Pratt, despite his recent loss of the five pounds apprentice allowance, will go on to win many races . . . This youngster has what it takes to win when the chips are down.

The fact there was not a ball game helped the size of the race track crowd, and also boomed the betting . . . There will also be an open baseball date in Boston today.

Valdina Alpha Better

RUNNING second to H. G. Bedwell's Undulator, Pine Tree Stable's Valdina Alpha showed better form than in recent starts . . . This speedy sprinter didn't show any tendency to stop as he has on several occasions . . . Jockey Pat Patterson was up on Valdina Alpha and did a capable job.

There was a heavy play on the classy Undulator and the price was knocked down to 4 to 5.

Rocky Palladino told me that Little Beans, as sound as ever, will return to the races . . . Little Beans has been on a stud farm in Jersey . . . A colt of which Little Beans is the sire will be ready for the races next year.

Before retiring temporarily to the stud, Little Beans refused to break . . . This often happens when a horse sours on racing . . . A rest away from the track is the best cure for this condition.

Dick Harlow as Coach

WITH DICK HARLOW back in a naval hospital in Philadelphia after a long stay in the Pacific, there is talk that the former Harvard football coach will direct one of the Navy V-12 elevens in the Fall . . . Harlow has lost 40 pounds in weight and it is expected it will be at least a month before he is discharged from the hospital . . . He will then go to his Maryland home for a rest . . . In view of his physical condition, it is unlikely that Harlow will be sent back to overseas duty.

I would like to see Harlow coaching the Iowa Seahawks who are loaded with former professional and college stars . . . This would give Dick an opportunity to show his genius as a football coach . . . At Harvard Harlow gained results even when he only had mediocre material . . . Harlow's pre-war football team was one of the best he ever coached . . . Its members are now all in service and have gained new glory for themselves as well as for Harvard.

Braves Star In Big 10

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Dixie Walker continued to beat out a torrid tune on the baseball scale to lead both major leagues with a .421 average today as his Brooklyn Dodgers dragged themselves home from a disastrous road trip.

While Walker upped his mark seven points, Thurman Tucker of the Chicago White Sox collected 13 hits in 29 at bats during the week for an American League top mark of .395.

Musial, the 1943 king, soared into second place at .364 with Boston's Tommy Holmes, who was not in the big 10 a week ago, moving into third with .348 on as many hits as Walker. After a stay on the bench, Joe Medwick of the Giants advanced from ninth to tie Teammate Phil Weintrub for fifth money at .340.

MAX MACON DROPS

Newcomers in the National big 10 are Jimmy Wasdell of the Phils and Holmes, although both had been up there earlier. Eric Tipton of Cincinnati, Danny Litwhiler of St. Louis and Max Macon of Boston dropped out.

Bob Swift of Detroit, Ford Garrison of the A's and George Stirnweiss of the Yanks failed to make the top 10 grade. Doerr and Hostetler were newcomers with Oris Hockett of Cleveland, whose .324 gave him sixth spot.

A SIGH FOR CY. "If he was 40 years younger, I'd sign him on the spot," says Connie Mack, left, after watching Denton "Cy" Young toss up a few at the A's ball park. Young set a major league pitching record by winning 510 games during the 23 years between 1890-1913.

Braves' Pitching Staff Rated Best in League

Providing the best showing of any of the four Eastern clubs during the recent invasion of the West, Manager Bob Coleman and his Braves have high hopes for a successful home stand which opens tomorrow afternoon at the Wigwam against the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Braves broke even in the 14-game jaunt despite the humiliating loss of three straight to the lowly Cubs that climaxed the trip.

The recent trip proved conclusively that the Braves' hurling staff is second to none in the circuit. Magnificent games were turned in by Al Javery, Jim Tobin, Nate Andrews, Charlie Barrett and Ira Hutchinson.

Manager Coleman has his problem to develop more hitting strength to support this superlative box work. The chances are that morning batting practice will help materially to lessen this serious handicap.

There were some hitting standouts in the lineup during the recent trip however. Nothing appears wrong with men like Tommy Holmes, Max Macon, Damon Phillips and Connie Ryan. They are all hitting at a .300 clip. Butch Neiman, Chet Ross and the catchers fell down at the bat.

CHANGES AT WIGWAM

During the absence of the Braves on the Western trip renovations were made to Braves Field that should all tend to improve the layout for both the players and the spectators.

A 10-foot cinder track was installed in the outfield, reaching from the extreme corner of the left field bleachers all along the outfield to where the old wall still stands. This was put in as a precaution for outfielders chasing fly balls. Instead of quitting in fear of the fence, when an outfielder steps on the cinder path now he will know he is still 10 feet away from the fence.

The Braves also announced that the distance for a home run pull into right field has been shortened in two spots. The uprights on the right field corner screen, have been taken down ending the dispute as to whether or not a ball hit on top is a home run or not and it is now 20 feet shorter to reach for a home run clout.

The Boston bullpen has been shifted to the right center field corner where the flagpole is and this barrier has been moved in, making it 18 feet shorter for a home run at this point.

Old Princeton Coach Is Dead

PRINCETON, N. J., May 22 Keene Fitzpatrick, 79, termed by Dean Christian Gauss the "Grand Old Man of Princeton University athletics," died today.

Fitzpatrick came to Princeton as track coach in 1910 and continued in that position and as trainer of the football team until his retirement in 1932. Before coming to Princeton, he was track coach at Yale and the University of Michigan.

He trained Amos Alonzo Stagg, Yale athlete, who later became a famous football coach and Lloyd M. Hahn, Michigan's Olympic miler. At Princeton he coached William R. Bonthron, a former outstanding miler.

Dean Gauss said an athletic field and a field house had been named for the coach.

Boxiing Popular at Pearl Harbor

PEARL HARBOR, T. H. (delayed)—(INS)—Interest in boxing reached a high mark recently when thousands crowded an outdoor arena at Aiea naval barracks for its dedication as "Nimitz Bowl" and to see the Central Pacific Area Service boxing championships. The bowl is on the edge of Pearl Harbor.

A well-rounded athletic program is being fostered in the Central Pacific area by the 14th Naval District Athletic Association. The association, given an initial impetus by Commander Gene Tunney, U.S.N.R., operates under the leadership of Lieut. W. H. Williams, U.S.N.R., of County Lane rd., Deerfield, Ill., the district physical fitness officer.

It has undertaken an athletic program which embraces the entire field of sports, with boxing featured as a year-round activity.

"Nimitz Bowl," named for Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander-in-chief, U. S. Pacific Fleet, seats 10,000 persons and was dedicated by Vice-Admiral Robert L. Ghormley, commandant, 14th Naval District. The bowl is the scene of weekly boxing shows under the sponsorship of the athletic association.

Two More Phillies Called for Exam

PHILADELPHIA, May 23 (AP)—Two more Phillies ballplayers—outfielder Ron Northey and rookie southpaw pitcher Ken Raffensberger—have been called for preinduction physical examinations, General Manager Herb Pennock announced.

Northey was previously examined and classified 1-A-L for limited service, but since has been moved to 1-A. He is 24, married and has one child. Raffensberger, 26, is married and the father of two children. He is a native of York, Pa. They will both be examined here Friday.

Park Leaguers Are Washed Out

After two perfect weeks the Park League finally hit a rainy night and all four games had to be postponed to a later day, but the popular "after dinner" loop will make another try tonight with a three-game card.

While first place is comparatively safe, for tonight at least, the rest of the standings face further jumbling as second place Watertown makes its bid to close in on the top position by tackling the strong Linehan Club at Columbus Park; the Casey Club mixes it up with Lawley's at Garvey Field and the Navy Yard plays Trailways at Jefferson Park. In the latter game the Navy Yard can lose and still be no worse off than tied for first.

The Arsenal is in second place at the moment but will have to win tonight to stay there as a victory for Linehan would reverse their positions and a triumph for Caseys over Lawley's would further scramble the standings. In that event Caseys and Linehan, tied for third, would move into a second place deadlock but victories for the Arsenal and Lawley's would result in a three-way tie for third.

Tigers, Cardinals Two Hottest Teams

By the Associated Press

Detroit and the St. Louis Cardinals rank as the two hottest clubs in the major leagues today on the eve of the second intersectional series of the season.

When the Tigers started their eastern swing they were buried in last place but their 10 out of 14 pace sent them soaring into fourth and only four games off the Yankee pace.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout was Steve O'Neill's ace in the spurt, winning all four of his starts, one from each Eastern team and allowing only five runs and 29 hits in 36 innings. Hal Newhouser picked up a pair and Rufe Gentry and Stubby Overmire graduated into the victory column to help the cause.

The western teams of the National, paced by the Cardinals with nine triumphs in 13 starts, handled the Eastern invaders in easy fashion by playing .615 ball. Only the Boston Braves who got spectacular pitching to break even in 14 games, could remain at an even keel. Brooklyn nose-dived from fifth to seventh with ony four wins in 14 tries.

In the American's East the home teams had the edge but had to scramble to keep above the .500 mark by taking 31 of 56. Detroit's success saved the other visitors from a complete rout, although each showed flashes of form.

All indications pointed toward a real knock-down, drag-out scramble in the American. Now that every club has played all the others, it is apparent there is no standout team.

New York has been in and out, alternating with its pitching success; Washington flopped badly in blowing four straight to the Tigers, and the Browns folded with only four victories in 14. Because the other top teams were losing too, the St. Louis collapse escaped general notice and they were able to hang in second place.

The Cardinals lost a series to Boston, two to one, but tightened their hold on first place while the other western teams began to take charge of the first division. Philadelphia in fourth place is the only eastern nine in the top four and this club had a rocky trip during which they dropped four of 12.

Even the Cubs began to pull out of the basement, taking seven of 13 their last four in a row.

While the rest of the major leaguers are traveling, the New York Giants and Brooklyn will resume night ball in the metropolitan district tonight with an 8:45 p. m. game at Ebbetts Field.

Wednesday the National's western entries will be in the East.

Chicago Drops Sport Program

CHICAGO, May 23 (AP)—Dean Aaron J. Brumbaugh of the University of Chicago today said that because of the heavy losses of undergraduate students to the armed forces the university will be unable to put teams into formal Big Ten competition next year.

Dean Brumbaugh, asserting that the temporary suspension of formal intercollegiate sports was dictated solely by war conditions, announced that the school will resume participation in all Big Ten sports except football as soon as undergraduate enrollment returns to normal. The Maroons abandoned football at the end of the 1939 season.

OPPOSITION NOTIFIED

The dean of students at the Midway said that letters communicating the decision were sent to the Big Ten members so that coaches might anticipate the action in making their plans for the Big Ten schedule meeting here this week-end.

Providing there are a sufficient number of eligible undergraduates available in 1945, Brumbaugh told the Big Ten committee members, Maroon teams will be organized for informal intercollegiate competition with neighboring service organization, and also with any Big Ten schools which find it possible to add Chicago to their regular schedule.

Meanwhile, he announced, facilities at the university will remain open for the use of Big Ten teams for championship events.

COMPETITORS IN 4 SPORTS

In the season just closing, the Maroons had teams in Big Ten basketball, track, baseball and tennis. A Maroon gymnastic team, with A. A. U. champions on its roster, took part in national collegiate competitors, but was without competitors among the Big Ten schools.

Redskins Sign Four Veterans

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Only four members of last year's eastern division championship team are among 29 players the Washington Redskins said today had been signed to contracts for the coming national football league campaign.

They are Bob Seymour, fullback who formerly played with Oklahoma; Ted Lapka, end, from St. Ambrose; and guards Al Fiorento of Boston College and Dick Farman of Washington State.

The 1944 collegiate draft was represented by three backs: Mike Micka, Colgate; Robert Sneddon, St. Mary's, and Bruce Babcock, Rochester University.

The others: Centers, Bill Armstrong, U. C. L. A., who played with Brooklyn last season; Joe D'Orazio, Ithaca; Ray Whelan, Louisiana State. Guards, Frank Gaziano and Ray Monaco, Holy Cross; Thomas Reilly, Fordham. Tackles, —Bill Hallett, Alabama; Jack Keenan, U. S. C.; Evan Morrow, Ursinus; Glen Stough, Duke. Ends, Lester Dye, Syracuse; Robert Ingerson, Ithaca; Chris Pavich, Georgetown; Douglas Turly, Scranton. Backs, George Smith, Connors College, Maurice Wade, Missouri and Tulsa; Donald Suman, Rice; Dr. Edward Hamacher, Gonzaga; Courtney Driscoll, Richmond; Scott Gudmundson, George Washington; Lornie Weeks, Buffalo, and Larry Weldon, Presbyterian.

Durocher May Don Glove in Tilt Tonight

NEW YORK, May 23 (INS)—Leo Durocher, verbose and redoubtable manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, may don a glove and amble out to shortstop position when the Dodgers oppose the Giants at Ebbets Field tonight in what he calls an endeavor to strengthen his team.

Durocher, voicing sarcastic displeasure over the showing of his flock in recent games, said, in effect, that despite his ailing thumb, extra poundage and lack of much physical activity, he could do much better than some of his charges.

Seabees Trying Made Kramer Good

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—A six-month stay with the Seabees in the U. S. Navy has converted Jack Kramer of the St. Louis Browns into one of the best pitchers in the major leagues today.

In an interview with Kramer, the tall 26-year-old righthander declared his rigorous boot training with the fighting Seabees had taught him the value of keeping in condition.

He disclosed that it was because of his not being in shape that he was shipped down the river by the Browns at the end of the 1942 season.

"When I first joined the Browns in 1939, I was a big green kid. I thought I could overpower the batters with my speed, and I paid little attention to training. As a result, I found that I'd tire after pitching five or six innings. But my experience in the Seabees has taught me the importance of keeping fit. Because of my Navy training I'm in better shape than I've ever been in my life."

KRAMER'S EARLY RECORD

Kramer spearheaded the St. Louis drive which enabled the Browns to tie the major league consecutive victory record at the start of the season by winning their first nine games. Jack won five times before he lost because of poor support.

After his honorable discharge from the Navy last summer due to a sinus disorder, Kramer was optioned by the Browns to Toledo, where he pitched the Mudhens into the American Ass'n playoffs.

His record at Toledo was eight wins and two losses, including a no-hitter, the first of its kind hurled by a Toledo pitcher in 39 years.

Kramer came to the Browns for the first time in 1939, after he had become the first freshman hurler to win 20 games in the Texas League the year before. He won nine games in his first year in the majors, but was able to win only seven games in his next two years.

He believes he is a better pitcher now because he has gained experience. "I suppose when a fellow gets older, he learns more. For one thing, I have better control and then I'm lucky to have a former catcher like Luke Sewell for a manager. I've also learned much from Freddy Hofmann and Zach Taylor, our coaches, who were once catchers, too."

Don Meade Divorced

MIAMI, Fla., May 23 (INS)—Don Meade, famous jockey, and Mrs. Jo Ann Meade rode separate ways today. Mrs. Meade obtained a circuit court divorce decree in Miami yesterday on ground of incompatibility.

They were married in 1936, and reportedly had been estranged since last year.

B. C. High and English Clash

Boston College High School's status among the clubs bidding for berths in the Eastern Massachusetts Baseball championships to be held next month in the big league ball parks will just about depend on the outcome of its meeting with Boston English in the feature of tomorrow's schoolboy program.

A loss by the Eaglets at Billings Field, West Roxbury, to the strong Blue and Blue would practically end any hopes of Coach Clem McCann's boys of entering the playoffs.

B. C. High has everything to lose—with the possibility of winning nothing—in this contest. A setback at the hands of English would be the third defeat of the season for the McCann crew and it would cost the Eaglets the city championship. A victory would be a big boost but it would mean that Everett, Wellesley and Hyde Park (a week from Saturday) still must join the list of victims.

Coach McCann feels confident that his club will come through on top. His 3-4-5 batters, George Carey, Bob Manning and John Fitzgibbons, have sharpened their batting eyes to lift the load from the tail end of the line-up. Now if they'll click the Eaglets will gain recognition as one of the hardest hitting nines in the schoolboy ranks.

Frank Shellenback, the clever control artist, will be on the mound for the Eaglets but his brother Dick may not be a starter in the outfield. Fred Murray, son of the Roslindale High mentor, has been pasting the pill lately and he may get the starting call in right field.

Either Tom Buckley or Giles Powell will be pitching for English.

Armstrong To Continue

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Henry Armstrong plans to stay with the ring business yet awhile, he says there's nothing to rumors of his retirement.

Hammerin' Hennery, only man in fight history to hold three championships at the same time, figures to be a prominent guy in the welterweight picture for some time to come.

"I'm ready for the best in my class," Henry said today, "and I know there'll be no setups where I'm concerned. All the youngsters want a crack at me."

POPS AARON PERRY

Armstrong stopped Aaron Perry, Washington hopeful, in six rounds last night.

The former featherweight, lightweight and welterweight king, now touring his third comeback trail, admitted that he's lost some of the speed that prompted sports writers to label him the "perpetual motion" boxing machine of a few years ago.

But I can go against anyone of the same weight class," he insisted. Henry, now in the 30's, has been in more than 300 fights.

Armstrong, a Los Angeles Negro who formerly fought under the Jolson's banner, is due to meet Willie Joyce, one of the better welters, in Chicago next month. When he's ticketed for a bout here against Sammy Angott, the former N. B. A. titleholder, July 17.

PERRY ON FLOOR

In last night's fight Armstrong floored the 18-year-old Perry on the floor five times before the referee decided to halt the slaughter. The Associated Press scorecard gave Armstrong five of the six rounds. The bout was scheduled for 10.

Perry, a vicious-punching kid who fought with little experience in the ring time, looked very sad against Henry. The time was 2:56 of the sixth. Eighteen thousand spectators paid $60,325 to see the fight.

Swim Champ Killed

TORONTO, May 23 (AP)—The wife of Flight Lieut. Douglas Jackson Jones, 26, one-time Canadian and Ontario swimming champion, said last night she had been notified her husband was killed Friday during operations in Newfoundland.
